Would Tie Turkey

SOFIA (AP)—Bulgaria, pressed by Italy and Germany, is making determined diplomatic efforts to obtain a pledge from Turkey to refrain from fighting if Nazi troops enter Bulgaria, usually reliable informants said tonight.

Hitler Calls Boris?

BELGRADE (AP)—Diplomatic quarters heard tonight that King Boris of Bulgaria would go to Germany tomorrow for conferences with Hitler, but these reports could not be immediately confirmed.

Jugoslavia Gives in

BELGRADE (AP)—It was said here tonight Hitler's invitation to the Premier and Foreign Minister of Yugoslavia to visit Germany for talks was extended 10 days ago, apparently with the date timed to follow Gen. Franco's talks yesterday with Mussolini and today with Marshal Petain.

(The Yugoslav leaders went to Munich today.)
The absence of any unusual military measures in Yugoslavia was interpreted to mean the government does not expect to resist and that whatever Hitler expects of this country the Premier and Foreign Minister are ready to grant.

More Destroyers

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Roosevelt and Navy Secretary Frank Knox discussed today the question of sending more destroyers to aid Britain, but late this afternoon there was no indication whether any decisions had been reached.

London Raid Alarm

LONDON (CP)—Anti-aircraft guns blazed in two London districts tonight as German raiders flew over the fog-shrouded English Channel to stab at the capital. Other raiders were reported over northeast Scotland and East Anglia.

H.M.A.S. Sydney Home

SYDNEY (CP)—The Australian cruiser Sydney, which sank the speedy 5,000-ton Italian light cruiser Bartolomeo Colleoni in the Aegean Sea last July, arrived in Sydney harbor during the night after a year's service abroad.

Flier Killed at Balboa

BALBOA, C.Z. (AP)—Second Lieut. John Kepling Fisher of the U.S. air reserve was killed today when his pursuit plane crashed into the mud flats at Chame Point during combat manoeuvres. The accident was the fourth pursuit plane crash in the past 36 hours here.

Says Petain Firm

LONDON (CP)—"German pressure on Vichy is succeeding only in hardening the overwhelmingly pro-British feeling in occupied France," Martin Moore, special correspondent of the London Daily Telegraph, reported today from Libson.

He said observers in constant touch with Vichy are unanimously convinced Marshal Petain will stand firm against all threats and that not a single French warship will be allowed to fall into Nazi hands.

Raising U.S. Debt Limit

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate finance committee gave quick approval today to legislation increasing the national debt limit to $65,000,000,000 to meet costs of defence and proposed British aid.

Anti-Nazi Outbreaks

AMSTERDAM (via Berlin, AP)—As a result of riots against Dutch Nazis on February 10, 50,000 Jews here are facing the immediate possibility of being enclosed in a ghetto.

A communique issued today by the German occupation authorities announced that after a training march on February 9, Dutch Nazis were assaulted by political opponents, especially inhabitants of the Jewish section of town, which is Waterloo Square.

Japs Prepare Blow, Australia Warns

SYDNEY (CP)—A. W. Fadden, Deputy Prime Minister of Australia, declared today the war had reached a new stage of the utmost gravity to Australia and indicated that "grave advices" concerning the situation in the Pacific had been received.

Information on the situation was received during a session of the War Advisory Council which was dramatically adjourned pending appearance of service chiefs at a meeting of the war cabinet tomorrow.

Air Chief Marshal Sir Robert Brooke-Popham, commander of British forces in the Far East with headquarters at Singapore, was invited to attend tomorrow's urgent meeting. He is on a visit here while Prime Minister Robert G. Menzies is in Africa, inspecting Australian forces.

Greatest Speed In Defence Moves
Mr. Fadden, who exercises the authority of the Prime Minister in Mr. Menzies' absence, and John Curtin, leader of the Labor opposition in Parliament, issued a joint statement setting forth Australia's position and concluding:

"What the future has in store is not precisely clear. What is clear is that Australia's safety makes it essential there should be neither delay nor doubt about the clamant (crying) need for the greatest effort at preparedness this country has ever made."

The statement said the War Advisory Council "considered cable messages dealing with recent developments in the international situation" and added:

"We think we should tell the people that, in the considered opinion of the council, the war has moved into a new stage involving the utmost gravity."

Mr. Curtin became a member of the Menzies All-party War Council last October as a sign of Australian solidarity.

Australia is known to be anxious over the developments of Japan's southward expansion for a "greater east Asia" economic sphere.

The latest concrete advance by Japan is her "mediation" of the border conflict between French Indo-China and Thailand (Siam) which follows recurrent reports of Japanese desire for concessions in southern Indo-China, about 500 miles at its nearest point from Singapore.

Japan already holds military bases in northern Indo-China, ostensibly to facilitate her attacks on southwestern China's Burma Road lifeline.

Australia Ready For Any Test
A BBC broadcast from London last night quoted Mr. Fadden as saying "Australia is in serious danger from hostile action near or upon her own coastlines," but adding that "Australia is fully prepared for her own defence."

The BBC also reported a new Japanese organization known as the National Association met in Tokyo Wednesday and issued a manifesto calling for "suppression of Democratic and Communist ideas." The manifesto said "the time has come to prepare Japan for the worst."

British Prepared To Defend Malaya
LONDON (CP)—The warning made by the Australian government of the gravity of the Pacific Ocean situation is regarded in informed London circles as calling attention to the increasing menace from Japan.

Belief has been growing here that Japan may plan a southward move against Malaya and the Netherlands East Indies.

Mr. Fadden's reference to the war moving into the new stage possibly referred to imminence of a Russo-Japanese pact. Sources here have contended Japan would wish to protect her rear before starting any move to the south.

Urged to Leave Soon as Possible
SHANGHAI (AP)—United States embassies and consulates sent out circulars today "urgently" advising withdrawal to the United States of American women, children and nonessential men from China, Indo-China and the Japanese empire.

The circulars were sent "both in the interests of safety and convenience of American nationals and in the interests of national security," it was announced.

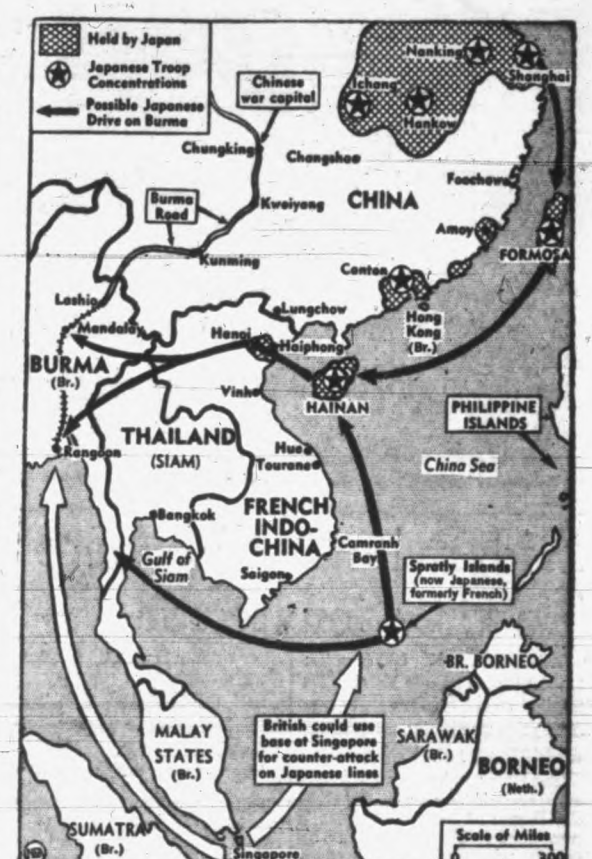

A sharp drop in the Shanghai stock market accompanied this renewal of United States government advice for American departures. Leading stocks fell off seven or more points to the lowest figures in many months, while the United States dollar exchange rate fell slightly.

The "further and necessary" advice to Americans to leave for home was given, the circulars said, in accordance with the United States State Department's evacuation suggestion of last October.

No Special Ships Listed for Voyages
Americans were urged to take advantage of existing shipping facilities. The circulars said the State Department "does not contemplate sending a special vessel or vessels to assist in withdrawals."

Simultaneously, it was reported British women and children have begun leaving Shanghai and other points in the Far East in small groups.

The British have not issued official advice to their nationals to evacuate, but it was stated authoritatively they are taking an increasingly serious view of the situation in southeastern Asia, with Japan steadily increasing her land, sea and air forces within striking distance of Singapore.

JAPANESE THREAT AGAINST BURMA?—Nipponese troop concentrations are reported in southern China and on islands in the China Sea. A Japanese drive would be aimed at stopping aid to China via the Burma Road and gaining valuable resources.

iteration of the withdrawal advice was not intended as an indication Washington foresaw worse relations between United States and Japan, but rather the government wished to minimize the number of Americans in Japan in order to facilitate diplomatic conversations on their disposition in the event of any rupture.

Financial circles said the stock market break was caused by reports published in native language newspapers that President Roosevelt had declared a war in the Pacific was "inevitable."

(Actually President Roosevelt, when asked at a press conference in Washington Tuesday whether he believed there was danger of the United States becoming involved in war in the Far East, replied in the negative.)

Well-informed persons arriving from Japan said Tokyo officials obviously were attempting to avoid further provocation of the United States and the Japanese government, they added, is "soft peddling" anti-American sentiment.

Washington Closely Eyes Japan
WASHINGTON (AP)—Concern was evidenced in some diplomatic quarters here today over the possibility that Japan was preparing for a lightning thrust in the Far East against British or Netherlands possessions.

Secretary of State Cordell Hull told reporters he had no late advices from American diplomats in that area, but he confirmed that renewed notice had been given to Americans in some sections of the Far East to return to the United States.

This, Hull said, was in conformity with the government's policy of taking all precautions for the safety of Americans in disturbed areas of the world.

In other diplomatic quarters it was learned that reports of a disturbing nature concerning possible Japanese plans for moves in the South Pacific had been received.

These coincided with an Australian government statement. The possibilities mentioned in diplomatic quarters embraced advances on the rich Netherlands East Indies or on Singapore, Britain's naval stronghold in the East.

The Netherlands minister, Dr. A. Loudon, conferred today with Under-Secretary of State Sumner Welles, but said afterwards he had no late information from the East Indies.

The War Today

By GUY RHOADES

Called Historic

Mussolini and Franco have reached a "complete identity of views regarding all problems of a European character interesting these two countries in the present historic moment" and a great number of people in many countries are trying to figure out what they mean.

In typical Axis language the Madrid government put that statement out last night, and the only other indication of new Axis stirrings arose in Tokyo, where the controlled newspapers Yomiuri warned President Roosevelt against believing peace in the Pacific would result from a "possible threat against Japan" by American-British-Australian naval co-operation.

Supplies

The Yomiuri blast apparently was based on President Roosevelt's answer two days ago to a newspaperman's hypothetical question as to whether the development of hostilities between Japan and the United States would interfere with American shipments of war supplies to Britain.

The President called the question "iffish," but said he would answer it—in the negative.

Actually there has never been suggestion Britain, the United States and Australia contemplated a naval attack against Japan although United States has let Japan know she does not want the Pacific status quo upset.

Aggression

The Yomiuri's outburst, if it meant anything, meant that Japan has designs on other nations' territories in the Pacific, almost certainly the Netherlands East Indies, and is trying to wangle an excuse for attacking them.

The only sort of excuse Japan could invent would be along the lines of the set-up Germany established yesterday for taking over Bulgaria when she feels like it. The Bulgarians were informed through the German controlled press that they are afraid Britain is about to violate their neutrality.

Nazi Infiltration

Next door to Bulgaria, in Rumania, Germany has established an army of 600,000, without any Balkan voice being heard save that of Turkey. Turkey would like to see a United Balkan front which could raise an army bigger than Germany's, but the other Balkans, for the moment at least, appear content to sit like much of the rest of Europe in days gone by and be devoured piecemeal.

Japan Beats Embargo

Metals Stowed Under Logs Loaded at Island Ports

DUNCAN — Duncan Chamber of Commerce was told last night that investigation clearly showed that Japanese vessels not only were carrying logs from Vancouver Island to Japan in large amounts, but that they were loaded below decks with metal from the United States.

Capt. J. D. Groves, who made the investigation at the request of G. E. Wellburn, president, declared that these materials were obviously being used for munitions manufacture.

"It simply amounts to this," he said, "we in B.C. are exporting munitions to Japan for the Japanese to fire back at us when the time comes, and from my visit to the Orient last year, I am convinced that Japan is just waiting for the German spring offensive to jump into the war with both feet."

Want Action

The chamber decided to try to stop the traffic at once.

Mr. Wellburn, Capt. Groves and K. F. Duncan will draw up a brief to acquaint the Dominion government with the facts and to ask for action. The support of other chambers and the press will be solicited.

Capt. Groves said that Che-mainus longshoremen called to Ladysmith to load logs on Japanese vessels found that the cargoes below the decks of every one of them were largely made up of copper in various forms, huge steel ingots and brass scrap. On one ship the brass scrap was concealed inside oil drums.

The metal came from the United States, despite the ban that country was understood to have placed on exports of this type.

"I think the Canadian government should be interested," said Capt. Groves. "These are materials for munitions. In going to Japan they are as good as going to an enemy country, and what Japan doesn't want will go on through Russia to Germany."

As for the logs, they came from Port McNeill, north of Alert Bay, and were towed to Ladysmith because it was safer for ships to call there. They escaped the prohibition on the export of fir logs because they were "junk" logs—inferior hemlock, balsam and so on.

Pulp Logs

"In other words," said Capt. Groves, "they are pulp logs, and pulp is the basis of cellulose, and cellulose is the basis of nitro-cellulose, and nitro-cellulose is the basis of explosives. More munitions, that's all these logs are." "Many million feet" of them had been exported already, he declared. Five ships had loaded them in Ladysmith since October "and if you want to investigate for yourself, another ship is coming in tonight or tomorrow morning."

To Capt. Groves and the meeting, the obvious course was to try to get the government to extend the fir ban to all logs. "The government can easily verify the facts I have given you," said Capt. Groves. "Probably it knows of them already. The thing we've got to do is get our case before some dependable man of action in the government, a man who'll do something quickly and not 'pass the buck.'"

DAUGHTER SNAPS MOTHER ON WAY TO DEATH—This photo, taken by Mrs. G. M. Berger of her mother, Mrs. W. O. Nemitz, 68, of Oakland, was a prelude to tragedy. The older woman waded into surf at Half Moon Bay, Cal., stood ankle deep in water while her daughter took snapshots of her. Suddenly a huge breaker knocked Mrs. Nemitz off her feet and swept her out of sight. Her body was recovered an hour later by a coastguardman.

Aid-Britain Bill Goes To U.S. Senate for Vote

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States Senate Foreign Relations Committee approved today, 15 to 8, the administration's aid-to-Britain bill.

The legislation was approved in substantially the form voted by the House of Representatives. It now goes to the Senate floor for debate, which will start Monday and which leaders hope to restrict to two weeks.

The committee acted finally after rejecting a proposal by Senators Hiram Johnson, Republican, California, and Allen Ellender, Democrat, Louisiana, to restrict the President's authority to send American armed forces out of the Western Hemisphere.

The committee rejected also an amendment proposed by Senator Charles McNary, Republican, Oregon, which would have stated specifically any ships transferred to foreign countries must be returned.

CONSULTATION NECESSARY

The British aid bill would permit the President to transfer, lease or lend war materials to nations whose defence the President considers vital to security of United States. Transfers of existing equipment would be limited to $1,300,000,000 and could be made by the President only after consultation with army and navy chiefs.

The legislation would expire July 1, 1943, and all contracts executed under it would terminate by July 1, 1946.

The committee rejected, 14 to 4, a substitute program proposed by Senator Robert Taft, Republican, Ohio, under which the United States would have loaned up to $1,500,000,000 to Britain, up to $500,000,000 to Canada and not more than $50,000,000 to Greece.

GIBRALTAR READY TO BLAST ATTACK

LONDON (AP)—There was little apprehension here today over Gibraltar.

"We can hold Gibraltar forever if need be," one military man said, "and a German army on Spanish soil would be sure to revive the Spanish Republican movement, which the Germans helped snuff out in Spain's civil war."

Few in London were of the opinion Bulgaria would resist what was believed here to be an imminent thrust through that country by German troops from Rumania.

"As soon as the Germans have taken over Bulgaria, and they will do that speedily, they will have a route to Salonika through Rupel Pass and along Seres road," one informant asserted.

Thus the Nazis would be in a position to cut Greek communications to Athens with an armored drive southward.

The natural corollary, it was added, would be encirclement of Yugoslavia, which still is neutral. Turkey's emphasis on defensive lines led some observers to believe that, despite stiffening of her attitude, the Turkish general staff would prefer to stand on her defences rather than attempt to meet the Germans in battle.

No More Presidents?

CLARE BOOTHE, author and playwright, told members of the National Republican Club at their annual Lincoln Day dinner in New York that "if the Republican Party does not soon recover some measure of its historic robust health, it will never again elect another President."

She said "historically, ours has always been an active and dynamic two-party system, and the inescapable logic of the situation is, that if the Republican Party can never elect another President, the chances are, sooner or later, there will be no more Presidents elected in America." She asserted the Republican Party was destroying itself because "it has become almost hopelessly dedicated to opposition for opposition's sake."

Counter-attacks In Eritrea Break

CAIRO (AP)—British troops driving into Eritrea from the north were reported today to have repulsed strong Italian counterattacks after occupying positions controlling an important highway junction at Elgena, 30 miles from the Sudan frontier.

Advices from the front indicated the British were improving their positions before attempting to push on in the direction of Cheren, 110 miles south, where another force advancing from the west has encountered stiff Italian resistance.

Reports from Libya said British forces there were striving to restore order in the countryside, where natives have killed a number of Italian colonists and pillaged their homes.

British military authorities warned the native population that property of Italian colonials must be respected and that looters would be shot.

STILL IN BENGAZI

Approximately 7,000 captured Bengazi's Italian population of 20,000 civilians were said to be still in residence there in addition to about 40,000 natives. Little military activity was reported on the Libyan front, though Axis warplanes were said to have attacked Bengazi virtually every night since its occupation by the British last Friday. Damage done by the raiders was described as slight.

The Royal Air Force announced today new raids were made Tuesday night on the island of Rhodes, where at least seven Italian planes on the ground were destroyed and a "very large fire" was started, apparently in a munitions dump.

RHODES BOMBED

ROME (AP)—British warplanes dropped "numerous flares and bombs" on the Italian island of Rhodes Tuesday night, the Italian high command admitted today.

The communiqué said two women and a child were killed and said some damage was done to dwellings.

"At Malta, our bombers attacked the airport of Mikabba," said the communiqué. "In North Africa, planes of the German air corps carried out offensive actions on troop concentrations, moving columns and an enemy airport."

'Canada Gives Freely'

NEW YORK (CP)—The New York Times said today editorially: "Canadian indignation over the argument that even Canada does not 'lease-lend' to Britain, an argument used by some opponents of the measure before Congress, is easy to understand. Across the border they see in the assertion what was probably never intended; that as a slur on Canada's war effort. But it is a fact that Canada neither leases nor lends to the mother country in this war. She gives freely, with both hands, to the limit of her capacity. Of her own free

Advance Toward Valona

Greeks Drive 3 Miles

ATHENS (AP)—Greek troops were reported today to have advanced their lines about three miles in the coastal sector after an intense artillery action to prepare the way toward Valona, Italian-held port on the Albanian coast.

The Greeks also were reported to have attacked over a wide front in the central sector and to be threatening "an important enemy base."

The fighting near Valona was said to have been staged on the heights within a short distance of the Adriatic shore, with the Italians defending strongly fortified positions. The Italian units at length were dislodged by bayonet-thrusting Greeks who found heavy losses had been inflicted by their artillery fire.

Will she have made the war her own and she is devoting to its prosecution 46 per cent of her entire national income...

"Canada's war gifts are free gifts. In Ottawa there is a demand for an official statement regarding Canada's position; but it is felt that none can be made without seeming to interfere in the discussions here over passage of the bill. No statement is necessary. The American people understand and respect the war effort of their good neighbor."

U.S. AUXILIARIES FOR U.S. NAVY?

WASHINGTON (AP)—The destroyer dispute between Navy Secretary Frank Knox and Wendell L. Willkie led some informed persons today to mention the pool of 45 recently converted auxiliary naval vessels as a potential force of further aid to Britain.

Prior to their conversion, these auxiliaries were destroyers of the same type as the 50 already traded Britain, but now, it was pointed out, the ships technically are no longer destroyers and hence are not counted as part of the fleet's destroyer strength of 160.

Knox's statement that no more destroyers could be spared "without depleting our fleet" did not, strictly speaking, apply to auxiliaries, these sources noted.

The Navy Secretary made the statement yesterday. In an indirect reply to Willkie's plea of Tuesday that from five to 10 American destroyers be sent to Britain each month to meet her "desperate need."

Willkie, in New York, retorted at once that "high authorities" in the administration had told him that "we are in a position, without any injury to our navy or national defence, to give Great Britain immediate effective assistance by furnishing her additional destroyers."

Desperate resistance also was put up by blackshirt contingents in the central sector, reports here said.

But the slackness of Italian artillery fire in the last few days was taken by Greek officers as confirmation of recent statements by Italian prisoners that Fascist guns have been moved back in an effort to organize a new line of defence.

A Greek spokesman reported acute supply and transport problems had led the Italian armies to abandon offensive thrusts to build up defences.

Some reports said the new line extends roughly from Valona to Berat, which would mean Italian withdrawal from the Tepeleni region.

Dead and wounded from Italian air raids on Greece in the last five days were reported to total about 110.

The Italians lost 26 planes and probably three others in these raids without hitting a single military objective, Greeks said.

PRISONERS CAPTURED

The Greeks said they occupied a mountain height in an unspecified area yesterday, taking prisoners and automatic weapons while their anti-aircraft batteries shot down three Fascist planes.

No Italian counter-attacks were attempted in the past three days, the spokesman said. (From the Yugoslav border town of Bitolj came reports of extremely heavy Italian losses in a five-day series of counter-attacks.)

Nazi Engineer Balkan Talk

Jugoslav Leaders Called to Germany

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP)—Jugoslavia's Premier and Foreign Minister left for Germany today for a special plane today and were reported to have reached Munich, and been met there by German Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop.

It was reported here that the Yugoslav officials, Premier Dragisa Cvetkovic and Foreign Minister Aleksander Cincal-Markovic, would go on to Berchtesgaden to see Adolf Hitler tonight.

The two went to Germany on the invitation of Hitler himself, presumably to learn of their country's role in the coming spring phase of the war. Jugoslavia might be a corridor for Nazi legions in the event they strike at Greece.

Well-informed quarters said they also would discuss Jugoslavia's adherence to the tripartite pact of Germany, Italy and Japan. They were accompanied by Viktor von Heeren, German minister at Belgrade.

Comes as Surprise To Diplomats

The news startled diplomatic quarters, which a few hours before had been discussing efforts of Turkish diplomats to form a pro-British line-up of Yugoslavia, Bulgaria, Greece and Turkey to preserve peace in the Balkans. Reports from other Balkan capitals added to a general picture of tension and fear of swift-moving developments.

Turks Call on Balkans To Oppose Nazi Drive

BELGRADE (AP)—A campaign to link Bulgaria, Yugoslavia, Greece and Turkey in a united front aimed at preventing possible spread of war in the Balkans was said by informed sources to be under way today in Turkish diplomatic circles.

These sources said the campaign, described particularly as an effort to convince the Bulgarian government resistance to expected German demands for the right to cross the country to get at Greece would be more advantageous to Bulgaria in the long run than acquiescence, admittedly was started with little hope of success.

The united front campaign received attention in the officially-inspired Turkish press. "Why do we not do something to make resistance easier for the Bulgarians, who would have to stand, in the event of resistance, against far superior forces," the Istanbul newspaper, Cumhuriyet, demanded.

"Turkey, Yugoslavia, Greece and Bulgaria could mass an army of 3,000,000 at the first shot."

Those sections of the Bulgarian press having close connection with Germany commented acidly on British Prime Minister Churchill's Sunday broadcast—a fact diplomats said they accepted as evidence the Axis was increasing pressure on Bulgaria and doing all possible to make public opinion favorable to German troop passage and use of Bulgaria's airports.

The Sofia newspaper Zora said that to ask Bulgaria "to decide against Germany is to ask her to commit suicide."

Nazi military preparations were reported going steadily ahead in Rumania. BUCHAREST (AP)—Evacuation of the civil population from the Rumanian oil fields was begun today as blackout regulations were emphasized here. Although the official order of evacuation has not yet been issued, many families, on the advice of military authorities,

Bulgars Seeking Port on Aegean

BUDAPEST (AP)—The official Hungarian news agency reported today the Bulgarian government radio had broadcast a speech contending Bulgaria is entitled to an outlet to the Aegean Sea across Greek territory.

Bulgaria long has demanded the port of Dedegach, now belonging to Greece, and a corridor linking it to Bulgarian national territory, and Germany has consistently back this claim.

(This speech may indicate Bulgaria has decided to throw in her lot with Germany and co-operate in a move against Greece.)

Deny Nazi Planes Massed in Bulgaria

LONDON (CP)—A Bulgarian legion spokesman today described as "fantastic" reports that 1,000 Nazi planes had landed in his Balkan country.

"We haven't the airports to take 1,000 aircraft," he said. The legion staff has not received instruction to leave London, the spokesman said, adding the situation thus far was not as desperate as it might seem.

already are moving out of the district. The exodus also was under way from the oil-loading ports of Constanta, on the Black Sea, and Giurgiu, just across the Danube from Bulgaria, and other towns on the banks of the Danube facing Bulgaria.

Hitler Asks Where France Stands

ROME (AP)—The Germans are willing to help settle Italian-Spanish-French problems, Axis observers here said today, but first Hitler must have answers on several points:

1. Whether France is willing to fall in with the Axis program for the "new order in Europe."
2. Whether the Vichy government is able and can clear up "political uncertainties" in France and bring changes demanded by the Axis.
3. The attitude of the French navy.
4. The attitude of Gen. Weygand, whose armies in French north Africa might become a threat to the Axis.
5. The attitude of all France's north African colonies, and
6. France's attitude toward the United States.

Which, if any, of these points Franco hoped to clear up in his conference today with Marshal Petain was not ascertained. But authorized comment in Rome indicated that all were involved in the Franco-Mussolini meeting.

GENOA SEARCHES FOR SURVIVORS

ROME (AP)—Rescue workers were asserted today to be continuing a search for survivors in the wreckage of more than 100 buildings demolished by the British naval bombardment of Genoa last Sunday.

Many persons were said to have been trapped in basements and air raid shelters, and Il Popolo di Roma expressed hope some of these might yet be saved.

Assassinated

NEW YORK (AP)—The Daily Mirror quotes Alexander Keren-sky, once premier of Russia, as saying Walter G. Krivitsky, found dead in his Washington apartment Monday, had been assassinated by an agent of the Soviet government's secret police.

SALLY'S SNOWY WINTER WASHES

...SO WHITE AND SWEET-SMELLING YOU'D THINK THEY HAD BEEN DRIED IN THE MIDSUMMER SUN

I CAN TELL YOU THE SECRET IN JUST 3 WORDS—HIGH-TEST OXYDOL! IT'S A NEW SOAP—WASHES CLOTHES AS MUCH AS 9 TO 11 SHADES WHITER—RAIN, SNOW OR SHINE!

AND YOU SAY IT HAS A NEW INGREDIENT IN IT—GIVES UP TO 3 TIMES THE SUDS OF OLD-TIME SOAPS—AND EVEN IN OUR HARD WATER!

YES—AND ON TOP OF THAT, IT SOMEWHAT DIRT IN 10 MINUTES, WITHOUT SCRUBBING OR BOILING—YOU CAN THROW YOUR WASHBOARD AWAY!

BUT, IF IT WORKS SO FAST AND WASHES SO WHITE, ARE YOU SURE IT'S REALLY SAFE FOR COLORED THINGS IN THE WASH?

POSITIVELY! I'VE WASHED THIS COTTON PRINT IN OXYDOL FOR MONTHS—AND IT STILL COMES OUT BRIGHT AS A NEW DOLLAR!

WELL, BEING IS BELIEVING! THIS PILLBOWIE IS ABSOLUTELY SNOWY—FRESH AS A DAY IN JUNE!

WHAT'S MORE, HIGH-TEST OXYDOL GOES SO FAR, IT'S LIKE GETTING SOMETHING FOR FREE.

LATER

HEY, HONEY, THIS OLD SHIRT SPARKLES SO YOU ALMOST THINK IT CAME RIGHT OUT OF A SHOP WINDOW! YOU MUST HAVE USED SOME SORT OF "WHITE MAGIC" TO GET IT—LOOKING LIKE THIS!

"WHITE MAGIC" IS RIGHT—SPELLED H-I-G-H-T-E-S-T-O-X-Y-D-O-L.

NOW...GIVE CLOTHES "JUNE-DAY" SPARKLE

...Even though they're hung inside!

NOW—say good-bye to dingy, winter washes! See clothes come to white and sweet-smelling that you'd think they had hung in the summer sun for hours!

Fortified by a revolutionary new soap ingredient, High-Test Oxydol has been proved to do these remarkable things:

(1) Gets white clothes as much as 9 to 11 Tintometer shades whiter than many popular soaps. (2) Soaks out dirt in just 10 minutes. No scrubbing, no boiling—a few quick rubs for extra-dirty spots, a good rinse, and you're through!

Yet High-Test Oxydol is so SAFE for washable colors and fabrics that even gay cotton prints, given the equivalent of more than a full year's washing, come out brilliant, sparkling, fresh. Doesn't make hands red or rough.

Ideal for tub washing, High-Test Oxydol also works wonders in washing machines. Its thick, active suds soak out dirt while the washer is running—give DOUBLE-ACTION wash.

Franco Sees Petain After Mussolini Talks

Britain Foresees Thrusts at Gibraltar, Suez

LONDON (CP)—British circles said today twin German thrusts at Gibraltar and the Suez Canal were expected "within the next 30 days" in an effort to seal both ends of the Mediterranean and isolate British forces in the Libyan campaign.

A drive in the west, they asserted, would be made with the full acquiescence of the Spanish government, which would allow the Germans free movement through Spain.

The drive in the east "probably will force the Turks to fight," but the enemy hoped this new foe would be balanced by cutting off Greece, they added.

It was said Mussolini was believed to have appealed to Franco in their Italian meeting yesterday for co-operation in a German attack on Gibraltar.

According to the picture drawn in British circles, the prime objective of the first phase of a German drive in the east would be Salonika, Greece.

If Salonika were captured, it would provide a base for air and sea raids on Alexandria. Britain's naval bastion in the eastern Mediterranean, they said.

British Diplomats Work in Balkans

It was indicated Britain was mobilizing all her diplomatic resources in the Balkans in an effort to offset the danger of a German thrust through Bulgaria.

The objectives of the diplomatic campaign were outlined as follows:

1. To insure Turkish support in the Near East.
2. To encourage the Greeks to continue their fight against the Italians.
3. To induce Bulgaria to resist possible German invasion by accomplishing the first of two objectives.

Will Not Weaken Home Defences

Authorized sources said that while Britain could increase her fighting forces in the Near East as the situation demanded, there was a limit as to how many men she could send in view of the threat to the British Isles.

"When things were looking the worst for us after Dunkerque we quite frankly took a gamble by sending urgently needed men and material to the Mediterranean and we won," one source commented.

"Be assured we are going to protect our winnings, but we are not losing sight of the fact that any Balkan or Mediterranean show is bound to be a side issue for Hitler. He knows he can't beat us without stabbing the heart and the heart is England."

He suggested the present German manoeuvres in Rumania and Bulgaria made it appear Hitler was trying to frighten Greece into making peace.

Spain, Italy Claim 'Complete Accord'

ROME (AP)—Nationalist Spain and Fascist Italy have reached complete accord on their wartime roles, "European reorganization" and Mediterranean and African problems, it was announced today, and it is believed Vichy France has been informed of their decisions.

Gen. Franco, motoring homeward to Spain through the French Riviera after five hours of consultation with Mussolini yesterday at Bordighera, Italy, was understood to have acquainted French Chief of State Petain with the results of the conference.

Franco, Petain Discuss Parley

(Petain met Franco at the French-Italian border this morning, said diplomatic sources at Bern, Switzerland, drove with him to Arles for lunch and then continued on to Montpellier, where the two parted. Franco and his Foreign Minister, Ramon Serrano Suner, leaving by automobile at 4.45 p.m., 7.45 a.m., P.S.T. Admiral Jean Darlan, French Vice-Premier, and Foreign Minister, Marcel Peyrou, French Interior Minister, and Admiral Disce of Italy were among the conferees.

(Vichy communications between Vichy and southern France were cut today and it was indicated this was associated with the fact Franco and his suite were traveling across the south returning to Spain. Officials said no calls for the Riviera would be accepted before 8 p.m.)

"Spain's attitude of solidarity with the Axis powers continues," said an authorized Italian source commenting on yesterday's conference.

A communique along the line of one issued earlier at Madrid announced "a complete identity of views" of the Spanish and Italian governments.

Question Raised On African Issue

The Madrid communique made no mention of "African problems," contrasting with today's authorized comment here.

The authoritative Rome source said the Franco-Mussolini meeting was "destined to have great importance."

See Spain in Role Of Passive Ally

Qualified observers said Spain's immediate entry into the war probably was not even proposed although, they said, Spain might take on Britain's Mediterranean gateway stronghold, Gibraltar. These observers said a continuation of non-belligerency by Spain, while she remains as a eventually become a base for at-close collaborator of the Axis, would depend on two difficult internal problems: Her food shortage and the uncertain political situation.

In this connection, Mussolini and Franco were believed to have discussed United States aid to Britain and the possibility of eventual American intervention in the war.

In such an eventuality the food supplies which Spain is obtaining from Argentina—as an indirect result, observers said, of United States credit to Buenos Aires—might be cut off.

Letters to the Editor

LENT COMING

To the Editor:—Ash Wednesday will soon be here. Lent begins February 26. The sacred season will give us a rare opportunity of attaining the unbreakable serenity and joy in our hearts which can lift us above every earthly affliction and circumstances and bring us into the presence of God. The Cross of Christ, His suffering and death, take on a new meaning this year, with humanity itself in the throes of crucifixion. Determine now to keep a good Lent.

HEARS OUR PRAYER

To the Editor:—Before the invasion of England is attempted we must look for more developments in the Mediterranean area, particularly at the points of Gibraltar and Salonika.

THE SAVING OF ST. PAUL'S

To the Editor:—The Church Times of London, England, in an item headed "The Heroes of St. Paul's," states that the dean in his sermon of January 5 said:

"Since last Sunday this cathedral has escaped a great danger. Great fires were caused all round the area in which the cathedral is situated, and we should be lacking if we did not return thanks to God for the providential escape which this great cathedral had. But, as so frequently happens, the providence of God worked through the foresight and devotion of men. It is to an incalculable degree due to the foresight of our surveying architect for such an emergency, and the devotion and skill of the cathedral staff and the volunteers, who dealt with incendiary bombs in so courageous and masterly a manner that we are able to assemble once more in this cathedral, practically undamaged, for the worship of Almighty God."

ALCOHOL AS FOE

To the Editor:—Statistics are published concerning the sale of alcoholic beverages in British Columbia. These reveal that, taking into consideration the small population of this province, the quantity in gallons absorbed and the amount in dollars spent on these are enormous!

When we think of the life and death-struggle going on in Britain at the present time and of the ever-increasing appeals for more help and of the urgent requests to give till it hurts, as they do over there, one stands amazed at the self-indulgence of so many here!

The federal government should deal with alcohol as one of our deadliest foes, as a mighty ally of our enemies; they should prohibit its wholesale manufacturing, restricting it to the pharmaceutical dispensaries together with all the other violent poisons to be used only in small doses and as when prescribed by responsible, registered medical men.

L. J. ECKMAN.

'OLD SCHOOL TIE'

To the Editor:—Your correspondent who defends Col. Bingham of the old school tie cult makes the assertion that "in few schools other than 'old school ones' has discipline been so faithfully practiced. In Canadian schools it is simply nonexistent—chief reason why Canadian troops take so long to train, for discipline started at 20 comes hard." Well, what of it? Are there better soldiers than Canadians or Anzacs?

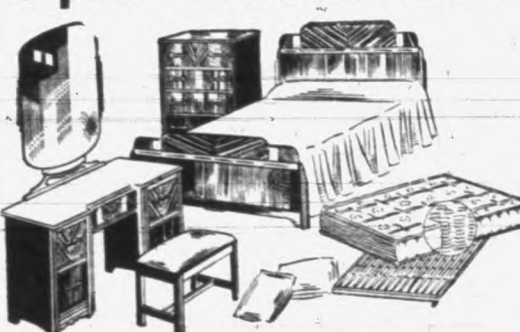

The stinging, humiliating lessons that Hitler gave the British in Norway and Flanders have been learned and improved, but it took the rowdy Aussies to show the world just how completely they had beaten him at his own game.

Hitler's army is made up from the working classes and he chose his officers with the same discrimination that Al Capone used, namely, on their ability to do their work. The old class military cult was almost disregarded in his selections. The effectiveness of his methods has not been lost on the British, as witness the rout of Mussolini's "Terribili" in Africa.

Scrambled News

TODAY'S POT-POURRI OF NEWS FROM Europe and Asia and Australia contains about 90 per cent of rumor and conjecture;
the rest of it may be taken as fairly reliable.
Spain's General Francisco Franco conferred with Mussolini yesterday; he has since had a chat with Marshal Petain. Rome tells us that "Spain's attitude of solidarity with the axis powers continues." Five months ago Italian propagandists welcomed Franco's collaboration in the Hitler-Mussolini combination with "high pleasure." If the Spanish dictator could be induced only to flirt
with the axis at that stage of the war's progress, there would seem to be less justification for new interest now. Much has happened since the ersatz Caesar sent his legions into Greece and boasted of his certain victory "from the Alps to the Pyramids."
It is as well to remember, however, that the world has witnessed many strange developments since September, 1939.

The Bulgarian press is reported to be showing signs of Nazi direction; some newspapers are employing the old technique to prepare the people for necessary measures to stop "a British attack" on their territory.
In his speech on Sunday, he noted, Mr.
Churchill seemed sure that Germany was "softening" that country for the fate which others have met as reward for their acceptance of the totalitarian "new order." And acceptance of an "invitation" by Yugoslavian leaders to visit the Reich suggests Belgrade
may have been enticed to nibble at the Nazi bait. Rumania already is in the throes of familiar to those states which succumb to vassalage with the hope of ending on the side of the winner. The government of Australia seems especially aroused today by the fear of Japanese action in the southern Pacific—
a prospect by no means without justification.
In this case, nevertheless, Japan must know
if she persists in her encroachments to a point at which United States as well as British and Dutch interests are definitely threatened by armed interference, World War No. 2 must assume proportions easier to imagine than describe. But Japan has a difficult job of unfinished business on her hands—now approaching the end of its fourth year, and to quote Premier Konoye's words, with "no sign of a solution."

London's contribution to this crop of alarms is that Germany is preparing to extend the war to two more fronts in the shape of a double-barreled thrust—one through Spain at Gibraltar and the other through Bulgaria at the Dardanelles and Suez. This plan sounds more plausible than a glance
at the map suggests, especially in view of the fact that both France and Spain must show more willingness than displayed so far to be used as a doormat, while, in the eastern sphere of such projected operations, Turkey and the whole Moslem world will have something to say on the subject. And Britain in the Mediterranean, in Africa, as well as in Greece, is in a position to deal
heavy blows to Italy when the time is considered right; the Mussolinian bubble has been pricked. How would Bulgaria and Rumania feel about the R.A.F. on the rampage?

After consideration of today's scrambled news, therefore, it may be as well to recall one passage of Mr. Churchill's Sunday broadcast: "In order to win the war, Hitler must destroy Great Britain. He may tear great provinces out of Russia; he may march to the Caspian; he may march to the gates of India. All this will avail him nothing. He may spread his curse more widely throughout Europe and Asia, but it will not avert his doom." One important point to remember, too, is that Britain and her allies expect and have prepared for the worst the Nazi gang may spring. The element of surprise is no more.

Severing Dangerous Links

RECENT DISPATCHES FROM WASHington dealing with pro-axis activities
in the Latin American countries suggest that some of the United States firms who had Nazi sympathizers in their employ as commercial representatives are severing
those connections. The office of commercial and cultural relations between the American republics, for example, has exposed to various American business houses
in detail the dodge by which they unwittingly were being made to play the Hitler game in Mexico, Central and Southern America; and many of them, of course, promptly acted.

Apparently what has been happening
is this: In Mexico, as a typical case, of 300
American firms selling through agencies,
about 150 were employing representatives with definite Nazi sympathies. Not only did these representatives contribute from their commissions to Nazi work in that country,
but diverted advertising appropriations to newspapers which were or could be made sympathetic to their cause, and passed on trade secrets to German connections. Thus American business men seeking to sell in Mexico and other southern countries had unthinkingly turned to established jobbers

and agencies which, unknown to them, had Nazi connections. And the more American goods were sold, the more funds, information, and power were available to Nazi sympathizers for their work.

It is good for us in Canada to see that such firms have been informed in detail as to the results of connections in which they have generally entered quite innocently, and it is doubly good to note that many of them have acted promptly when they learned the facts. It is one thing for Nazi sympathizers in Latin countries to use all their legitimate influence in favor of their own cause; to allow them to turn legitimate United States influence against 130,000,000 Americans is a horse of a different color.

More Railway Figures

FOLLOWING RECENT ANNOUNCEments of the growth of Canada's external trade to the highest value of any year since 1929, coupled with a substantial net revenue increase in Canadian National Railways accounting, comes the preliminary statement of the Canadian Pacific Railway's operations for last year. This shows the figures for 1940 compared with 1939:

	1940	1939
Gross earnings	$170,964,897	$151,280,699
Operating costs	$135,325,458	$122,756,880
Net earnings	$35,639,438	$28,523,819

It will be seen from the foregoing that
the largest privately-owned transportation system in the world showed an increase in net earnings of $7,100,000, while gross earnings were up $19,700,000; operating expenses
for the 12 months, however, had increased by $12,600,000. It is also noted in the latest statement that gross earnings for the month of December rose to $16,300,000, or an advance over the corresponding month of 1939
of $2,600,000, while operating expenses rose
by $2,200,000, the net earnings for the 31
days being $4,806,206 in 1940 against $4,381-968 in December, 1939.

Taking the increase in external trade with the much improved condition of the two transcontinental railway companies, the year 1940 reflected growing business, not only accelerated by Canada's war effort, but also by a continuance of the better economic conditions which in recent years had gradually reduced the seriousness of the Dominion's unemployment problem.

War Materials for Japan

DUNCAN'S CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
has been told that Japanese vessels not only are carrying logs from Vancouver Island to Japan in large amounts, but also that they are loaded below decks with metal
from the United States. Captain J. D.
Groves, who carried out the investigation at the request of the Duncan organization, is reported to have explained:

"It simply amounts to this, we in B.C. are exporting munitions to Japan for the Japanese to fire back at us when the time comes. From my visit to the Orient last year I am convinced that Japan is just waiting for the German spring offensive to jump into the war with both feet. What Japan doesn't want will go on through Russia to Germany. As for the logs, they come from Port McNeill, north of Alert Bay, and were towed to Ladysmith because it was safer for ships to call there. They escaped the prohibition on the export of fir logs because they were 'junk' logs, inferior hemlock, balsam. In other words, they are pulp logs, and pulp is the basis of cellulose, and cellulose is the basis of nitro cellulose. Nitro cellulose is the basis of explosives."

Captain Groves said that Chemainus longshoremen, called to Ladysmith to load logs
on Japanese vessels, found the cargoes below
the decks of every one were largely made up of copper in various forms, huge steel ingots and brass scrap. On one ship the brass scrap was concealed inside oil drums.
These revelations would appear—especially in view of Japan's encroachments in the southern Pacific—to add new reasons for a more effective co-operation between Ottawa
and Washington in the matter of shipments
of war materials to active or potential enemies.

Notes

A reader brags he receives mail from Greek soldiers. "If you don't believe me,"
he says, "I'll show you the Italian postmark."

Jugoslavia's Premier and Foreign Minister are meeting Joachim von Ribbentrop
in Munich—and will probably go on to Berchtesgaden to see Hitler after they have been plucked and garnished with the "new order."

CANADA'S HUGE WAR COMMITMENTS

From Toronto Star

A dispatch suggests that the next fiscal budget may contemplate war expenditures of $2,000,000,000 per year. Two thousand million dollars!

The net national debt of Canada in 1930,
the net amount outstanding after operating the Dominion since 1867, financing the Great War and carrying on the general business of the country, was $2,177,000,000. And now it is said that $2,000,000,000 may be spent in one year on war alone.

Last fall Canada was already spending at the rate of $1,000,000,000 per annum. The $2,000,000,000 figure suggested would mean a doubling of that expenditure. But whether that figure is reached or not, it must be apparent to everyone that taxation, increasingly heavy though it must be, will not begin to meet the bill. The Dominion must borrow huge sums; must borrow them from its own people. Everyone who can possibly do so must help.

One way to help is to buy war savings certificates, a 3 per cent investment, non-taxable and, after six months, cashable if desired. They are available in denominations
as low as $5, which four dollars will purchase.

THE CAPTAIN AND HIS SHIP

From The Times, London.

It is the sad duty of a newspaper, particularly in time of war, to chronicle many tragedies, at sea, on land, and in the air. Among them, from time to time, are those of the loss of ships at sea, events which in the nature of things are only too often accompanied by regrettable loss of life. The casualties then recorded may include the captain of the lost
ship. It is inevitable that this should occasionally be so, but there is no foundation
whatever for the tale that it is the invariable rule. Yet whenever it does happen a number of people are moved to write letters to the press—as any editor's letter bag can testify
—protesting against the sway of the alleged tradition that "the captain must go down
with his ship."

It seems desirable, in order to save much unnecessary pain to those who may have lost
a father, husband, or son in this way, to point out with all the emphasis at command
that among seamen there is no such tradition. It seems to have been the invention of the sentimental novelist, borrowed and adapted for his own purposes by the sensational reporter. Traditions of the sea, indeed, there are. There is much that is noble
but nothing that is theatrical or sentimental about them, and never could they be quoted as responsible for a useless sacrifice. That which governs the conduct of the captain of a ship at all times, in triumph or disaster, is that his duty makes him responsible for the safety of his ship and her company—put in that order not because things are more valuable than men but because to ensure the safety of the ship is the best way to ensure that of all on board. That duty dictates that he shall not leave her while a possibility remains that human effort can save her.
Unless he is disabled, his qualifications must less than his duty dictate that he shall direct that effort. But, if and when the moment comes to him to give the order, "Abandon ship," the ship's company take the place of the ship herself as his first care, and there is no tradition that can relieve him of that responsibility.

The captain indeed may go down with his ship. He on whom the heaviest responsibility rests must inevitably be more exposed to danger than most of those under his direction. But, if he does, it is the perils of the sea that are responsible for the loss of a life
more valuable than many others, not a theatrical tradition which has no existence in reality. Such a death is no useless sacrifice.
It is the end of a hero who gives his life at the call of duty in the act of providing for the safety of those committed to his charge.

THE WREN CHURCHES

Inevitably opinions differ on what should be done to the lost or impaired monuments of the genius of Wren. The correspondence columns of The Times bear witness to a wide diversity of view. One wishes to repair the work of Wren on Wren's own lines.
Another points out that Wren did not copy
his predecessors but designed anew, and thereby offered an example of progressive wisdom to the present generation. A third reminds us that not long ago the ecclesiastical authorities themselves proposed to make away with a number of churches as redundant, to sell the sites for secular purposes,
and to employ the money in meeting the religious needs of populous parishes; and he therefore suggests that Wren rebuilt should migrate where he would give "a more general pleasure and exercise a wider civil-izing influence than in a congested galaxy."

But the ruined Wren churches of London
are not alone in the inspiration they impart to seers of the future. An intelligence is awake, by no means unhealthy, which welcomes in the losses Hitler has wrought upon England an opportunity for imparting a new and better material aspect. Let us, it calls, now that an impetus has come from an enemy, repair the old lack of urban planning and devise nobler, more commodious and healthier cities and towns. The prevalence of such a spirit is not the least notable sign of British confidence in Britain's future.

DAMAGE IN THE TEMPLE

From Manchester Guardian

The Temple, in London, which has suffered further damage in recent raids, is a melancholy spectacle. The tree-shadowed lawns that were "barbered ten times o'er"
by assiduous gardeners are covered with the grey dust and rubble, and strangers, their normal passage-ways blocked, tread upon its once gay flower-beds unscolded by the top-hatted guardians. The pigeons have fled in fright from Fountain Court.

From almost every block of chambers comes the sound of hammers as masons and glaziers busily repair what can be made habitable. But as a legal hive and as one of the pleasantest residences in London, the Temple will not be itself again until the war is over. Some buildings are in ruins.
Lamb's "cheerful Crown Office Row" is a wreck, though the plaque which marks it as his birthplace with its Elian quotation—"A man would give something to have been born in such places"—may still be read, and the fine wrought iron gate dated 1730 also survives.

HALL AND CHURCH

Middle Temple Hall, its famous Tudor roof blasted, has already been mourned. All the windows of the Temple Church are shattered, but the structure stands unharmed and its effigies of recumbent Crusaders still lie peacefully.

A more personal loss amidst a scene of destruction that all good Londoners lament
is that suffered by your London editor Mr.
James Bone, who, rescued from the torpedoed Western Prince, got back to London
only in time to lose the home he has so long enjoyed in King's Bench Walk.

He was a bold man who first swallowed an oyster—James I of England.

Parallel Thoughts

But he said: Yea rather, blessed are they
that hear the word of God, and keep it.—

when it loses faith in God and woman.—

KRIVITSKY FINISHED

DEATH HAS overtaken the ex-Soviet agent, Krivitsky, who wrote a sensational series of articles for the Saturday Evening Post some two years ago. On his own confession, Krivitsky had been a key man in the Communist secret service. His revelations were furiously denied by Communist papers in the United States and elsewhere. But what was certain was that from that moment on his life was not worth a plugged nickel.

When Trotsky was brutally murdered in Mexico City some months ago people began to realize that the arm of Stalin was very long. Krivitsky—an employee of the Federal Bureau of Investigation—was killed in the capital of the United States. The arm of Stalin seems longer even than in Trotsky's case.

What has always amused me about the Soviet is that only a tiny fraction of people, in this country and elsewhere, seem capable of considering it with the same amount of impartiality
as they accord to other existing things.

Either the Soviet is so bad that nothing it has done can be commended; or else it is so utterly admirable that no matter what it does it is completely above criticism.

During the first 10 years on which I worked on newspapers
it was almost impossible to get anything into print in this country which was even fair to what was being attempted. I witnessed one case of where a great newspaper had sent its own correspondent to Russia to report on conditions, and then refused to publish his reports, because they were not as damning as had been expected.

In the thirties the pendulum
swung right over to the other side. It became fashionable to be enthusiastically pro-Soviet. Thousands throughout the world
adopted an attitude of see no evil, hear no evil, speak no evil of Russia. That attitude was somewhat shaken by the wholesale purges in Russia. All the original liberals went liberal again when Stalin made his ganster deal with Hitler. Yet I have had one of the keenest professors in Canada look me straight in the eye and declare that Finland and not Russia was the aggressor in the recent war.

A week or two ago I wrote casually that the Communists and the Nazis had combined in Prussia to overthrow the Social Democratic government; and that that action was the direct cause of the setting up of the police dictatorship in Prussia without which Hitler never could have seized power in Germany.

One frank fellow, who calls himself a nonparty Communist,
wrote me about that with pleasing pungency: "Either you are a liar or a silly ass." The Communists could not have done
that, he believes, and he will not take the trouble to look up the facts in any public library.

VANISHED RED LIGHT

On the day that Britain severed diplomatic relations with Rumania, Moscow informed Bulgaria that she could expect no help from Russia in the event of a German invasion. The red light was turned off and the green light turned on. The Germans were free to go ahead as far as the Soviet was concerned.

That fact will certainly give rise to a new crop of rumors and speculations about the Soviet German relationship. My own guess remains what it has been all along: That the Soviet will continue to play a hands-off game. She will stall for time whenever possible, but never risk an out-and-out showdown with Hitler while his armies are in the prime of their strength.

Russia will not come into the war unless she is forced to do so; or unless she has an obvious
opportunity to make some gain
without too heavy cost.

And if she ever does come into the war it will certainly not be
to save us, the democracies, much less to preserve the British Empire.

"The aim of all diplomacy," said Molotov, "is to reduce the number of one's enemies."

Which, being translated, would suggest to me that Russia will sit tight until the armies just outside the Red borders are too weak to withstand her, and then proceed to cash in on this war in a big way, and in accordance with the long-term program laid down
by Marx and Lenin.

Y.M.C.A. to Open Services' Lounge

The new Y.M.C.A. lounge and dormitory for members of the three services will be ready for operation on Saturday.

Following on the heels of the plasterers and painters, members of the "Y" Women's Auxiliary, for the past 10 days, have washed windows and floors, cleaned and arranged furniture, and generally put the rooms in order. Mrs. E. Tomlin, president of the auxiliary, announced today that the actual opening will be held this week-end. The formal opening will be held later.

The main lobby of the "Y" building has been partitioned into three, the lounge for the services, a smaller lobby and the lounge for "Y" members and dormitory residents. The latter has been open for two or three days. A change from the drab appearance of the former members' corner, this room is cosy with chesterfields and easy chairs, reading lamps, radio, chess tables and books and papers for reading. Several colorful rugs are on the floor. The large open fireplace on one wall can be used for special days.

The lounge on the south side for the services will be much the same, with a piano and billiard table added. Comfortable chairs and lounges are arranged to get the full benefit of the natural light, with ash trays within easy reach. A refreshment counter in the corner will be used only on special occasions, but will not be used as a canteen.

Dormitory facilities will be provided for 20 men at first, with room for more beds. Half of the boys' room on the first floor is being used for this purpose, the resulting alternations making a large, airy room, with plenty of natural light.

To be operated in conjunction with one another, the services' lounge and dormitory will be under the supervision of the Women's Auxiliary and interested friends. It is hoped that the lounge will become a quiet, central place for soldiers, sailors and airmen to mingle with each other and meet their lady friends. Young ladies will not be allowed to enter the lounge unless accompanied by a member of the forces, but may wait in the main lobby until his arrival.

BRIGHT PROGRAM AT K. OF C. HUT

Betty Clair and her dancers were the principal attraction at the K. of C. Hut, Government Street, together with a full-length film feature comedy starring Joe E. Brown, operated by Jack Neary and Douglas Flintoff. A crowded house of all branches of the forces filled the hall to capacity. Popular items were the Dutch dancers, Diane Kerslake, Joyce Hemsley, Francis Rogers, Selma McManus, Doreen Buckingham and Kathleen Spiers; Iris Brooks in song and dance, including a clever eccentric coon dance; Audrey Brown, a dainty dancer with personality; Betty Spiers, Jerry Ash, Joan Buckingham; the Two Rhythmettes, Art Brookman and his guitar; Petty Officer Norman in two clever character monologues, and the sensational Rambling Four Skaters, who did a breathtaking act on roller skates, under the direction of Harry Hornby, assisted by June Browne, Betty Clair and Frank Bossom.

The full-length film feature was the inauguration of the new Knights of Columbus cinema machine, which will be another item of entertaining work done for the forces by the K. of C. This will be operated by Jack Neary, with a regular service of films from time to time. James McGrath was master of ceremonies. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the performance by ladies connected with members of the K. of C. and the Catholic Junior League.

With the facilities for games, reading and dancing every Wednesday, the K. of C. Hall, open from 7 every evening, should prove to be as popular as any recreation centre in town for men in uniform.

Curb War Dances

OTTAWA (CP) — Dr. E. W. Stapleford, director of the voluntary services branch of the Department of National War Services, told the Lions here the department is trying to discourage organizations from holding dances, parties and similar social functions designed to aid Canada's war effort.

He said many dances and parties provide only a few dollars for the war effort after expenses have been paid. It was the aim of his branch to insure that all wartime appeals to the public raised maximum revenue with minimum expense.

A homing pigeon can fly 600 miles a day.

As used in card games, the word "trump" is a corruption of the word "triumph" as pronounced in French.

To Send Notions to Bombed British

The Victoria branch of Red Cross is sponsoring the sending of "Notion Boxes" to the women of Britain who have suffered bombing, and as a consequence have lost all their possessions, and there are today many thousands in this unfortunate plight.

Each box measuring about six by four inches will contain approximately two dozen articles useful in such an emergency such as, scissors, hair and safety pins, handkerchiefs, thread, tooth brush and powder, cotton, needles, thimbles, soap, mirror and other toilet articles.

A sample may be seen on the "notions" counter at any of the following stores, who are kindly co-operating in the scheme: Woolworth's, David Spencer's, Kresge, Hudson's Bay Co. and Metropolitan Stores, where one or more of the contents may be purchased for a few cents, and left at the counter for collection each day by members of the committee in charge, Mrs. H. M. S. Bell and Miss D. Bagshawe. As soon as sufficient number of boxes have been made up they will be sent overseas by the Red Cross, for distribution where most needed.

The honorary treasurer of Red Cross acknowledges the following amounts: Sooke unit (additional), $25; Empress Hotel (collecting box), $8.93; Chapter "J" (P.E.O. Sisterhood), $10; Metchoshin unit (additional), $35; Superfluities Store (January receipts), $500; Esquimalt unit (additional), $78; Quadra unit (part proceeds from bazaar held by the P.T.A.), $29.50; Shirley unit (proceeds from dance), $75; "Vickey" (per Mrs. Bloomfield), $16.82; Mt. Tolmie unit (proceeds from card party), $24.45.

The W.A. to the Pro Patria branch of the Canadian Legion held a successful card party on Monday night at the home of Mrs. J. Smith. Court whist was played, the winners being Mrs. E. Minnis, Mrs. T. Scouler, Mrs. Laxton, Mrs. J. Jones and Mrs. Morris. The door prize was won by Mrs. H. Porteous. Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. T. C. Davis. Mrs. B. Ripley, the president, thanked the hostesses, Mrs. J. Smith and Mrs. E. Minnis, on behalf of the Ladies' Auxiliary, for an enjoyable and successful evening.

The W.A. to the Air Services met at the Y.M.C.A. on Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. R. H. McDougall, the president, in the chair. The sewing group reported 128 articles of clothing for refugee children handed in to the Red Cross. The recent tea-musicals held at the home of Mrs. R. W. Mayhew netted the handsome sum of $164.30 for the funds, and a warm vote of thanks was passed to the hostess and all who contributed to its success. Mrs. A. O. Butters gave an interesting talk on the women of Persia.

Morning Musicales Prove Popular

The musical morning, which Mrs. Godfrey Isaacs has inaugurated during her winter's sojourn in Victoria, while occupying Mrs. Gordon Hepburn's house at 1069 Beach Drive, have grown in popularity and interest, due in a large measure to the generosity of Mr. Carl Horthy in appearing regularly in operatic arias and duets with Mrs. Isaacs, and to other local artists who have given so generously of their talents.

Miss Mary Beynham has delighted several times with her charming legends and folk songs from the Hebrides, and Mrs. T. A. Rickard, Lady Graham, Mrs. Harry Briggs and Miss Frances Dutton have also sung. Miss Selma Reyes has given violin solos and Mrs. J. D. D. Campbell piano solos.

On Wednesday of this week the program included two movements from Brahms' Sonata in G Major, played by Miss Selma Reyes, accompanied by Mrs. J. Hebdon Gillespie on the piano; a composition by Godowski for the piano, played by Mrs. Campbell; "Tarentella," by Rossini, sung with gusto and vivacity by Mr. Horthy, followed by Schubert's "Wohin" as an encore, and the well-known duet from "Cavalleria Rusticana," sung by Mrs. Isaacs and Mr. Horthy, accompanied by Miss Eileen Dumbleton at the piano.

Apart from the artists who have given so much pleasure, those present included: Lady Byng, Mrs. John Maltwood, Mrs. Carol Atkins, Mrs. Gerald Coughlin, Mrs. G. F. Amyot, Mrs. Curtis Sampson, Miss Alexander, Mrs. David Doig, Mrs. J. W. Spencer, Miss Mary Campbell, Mrs. Bannerman Campbell, Mrs. W. F. B. Berger, Mrs. H. R. Swan, Mrs. Knox, Mrs. H. R. Beaven, Mrs. Dennys Godfrey, Rev. A. V. Despard, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Prickard, Miss Stead, Mrs. T. W. A. Gray, Mrs. Rathbun, Mrs. Phillips, Mr. Paul Carrier, Mrs. L. Bullock-Webster, Mr. Fireberg, Mrs. Harvey, Miss Louise Hayward and Mrs. Marcel Godfrey.

Fairfield W.A. Tea at Church Hall Success

A large number of guests were welcomed at the Fairfield United Church hall yesterday afternoon when the Women's Auxiliary held a successful tea. Mrs. C. A. Fields, the president, received the guests. The tea tables were arranged with daffodils and maidenhair fern and red hearts, and presiding at the tea urns were Mrs. P. C. Richards, Mrs. A. Schroeder, Mrs. Haddow and Mrs. D. McLean.

Miss Eleanor Swain and Mrs. W. H. Wilson contributed vocal solos, with Mrs. Paul Green and Mrs. James Cameron at the piano. Mrs. W. H. Yardley gave two recitations, all the numbers being much enjoyed. Mrs. George Piercy moved the vote of thanks to the artists, who were also presented with corsage bouquets by Mrs. E. Woodward. Miss Jessie Richards had charge of the tea "cicets."

Are You Nervous And All On Edge?
People suffering from loss of appetite and run-down condition due to nerve strain, often need a nerve food and general tonic. Glycero Lecithin with Vitamin B (1) helps rebuild nerve tissue. It is especially beneficial for convalescents. By increasing the supply of Vitamin B (1) in the system, appetite is improved and the system built up to normal. $1.00 at all Cunningham Drug Stores and other drug stores (Advt.)

Social and Personal

Following the concert last night by Madame Gertrude Huntly Green, the Victoria Musical Art Society held a reception in the lounge of the Empress Hotel. His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. E. W. Hamber, patrons of the society, received the members and guests. In the receiving line were Mrs. E. W. Hetherington, president of the society, and Dr. Hetherington, and Madame Gertrude Huntly Green. Mr. A. M. D. Fairbairn accompanied the governor. Mrs. Hamber wore a charming gown of wine-colored lace, with a corsage of orchids. Mrs. Hetherington chose ice-blue satin, with a corsage of gardenias, and Madame Gertrude Huntly Green was graceful in a gown of shell-pink lace with pearls. Following the reception, supper was served. Miss Lora Blake, Miss Beatrice Griffin, Messrs. George Green and W. I. Anderson of the executive also assisted in receiving.

General J. M. Ross, of London, Ontario, and Mrs. Ross, are visitors in Victoria and are guests at the Empress Hotel.

Lt. Gordon Fawcett, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Fawcett, View Royal, left today on his return to Winnipeg.

The christening of the three-month-old baby son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Bareara, 832 Eillery Street, took place at the Victoria West United Church last Sunday. Rev. C. D. Clarke officiated and the child received the names Armon Eugene Frederick.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Crenn of Calgary arrived at the Empress Hotel this morning for an indefinite stay. Mrs. Crenn will enter the annual Empress golf tournament, which opens on March 9. Other arrivals at the hotel today included Mr. and Mrs. A. Diesbourg of Toronto, who are here for two weeks, and Mrs. and Mrs. Olmstead and Mr. and Mrs. Reid, all of Saskatoon, who will stay here for about a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Pitts of Ashcroft, who came down to Victoria for the Barnes-Wilson wedding yesterday and who have been staying with Mr. Pitts' father, Mr. S. J. Pitts, Rockland Avenue, and with Mrs. Pitts' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wilson, St. Charles Street, left last night for their home. Mrs. Gordon Money, who was also here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wilson, returned last night to Vancouver, and Mrs. E. P. Marston, of Ashcroft, another sister of the bride, is remaining for some time longer.

Government House Bridge Nets $2,000 for Solarium

Ever ready to further the sacred cause of charity, His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. E. W. Hamber opened the hospitable doors of Government House yesterday afternoon for a bridge party in the interests of the Queen Alexandra Solarium. So popular is the rendezvous and so popular the beneficiary cause that the 162 tables reserved proved too much for the accommodation at Government House and Mrs. J. W. Spencer, Craigdarroch, and Mrs. Lennox Irving, Foul Bay Road, generously opened their homes to the overflow of 15 tables of players.

The excellence of the arrangements attested to the combined effort of the host and hostess, the board of directors of the Solarium and their wives, the Solarium Junior League and the Women's Auxiliary. So splendidly did the public support the undertaking that, when the financial statement, has been completed, a cheque slightly in excess of $2,000 will be handed over to the Mill Bay institution.

LOVELY FLOWERS

Mrs. Hamber was assisted in receiving the guests by Mrs. J. D. Hunter, wife of the Solarium president, in the entrance hall which was massed with great bowls of growing freesias and other spring flowers. The 147 tables were arranged in every available corner, the ballroom and its galleries, the drawing room, morning room, study, and the upstairs hall being pressed into service.

Japanese plumblossoms, daffodils and other flowers were massed wherever space was left, with colorful and fragrant effect. Tea was served in the dining room and in the lower billiard room, great silver bowls of daffodils, narcissi, iris and tulips being used in decoration of the long buffets, lighted by yellow tapers in silver candelabra.

THE PRIZEWINNERS

At 5 o'clock, Mrs. E. W. Hamber officiated at the grand drawing of the prizes, which were awarded tombola fashion, Mr. A. M. D. Fairbairn announcing the winners.

Mrs. J. W. Gillis, King's Road, won the refrigerator, and Dr. J. D. Hunter the handsome radio, and he promptly returned it to be used to raise more funds for the Solarium.

Other prizewinners were: Mrs. A. Richardson, table radio; Mrs. P. Burnside, silver tray; Mrs. E.

English Artist Paints Local Flora

Visitors at the Empress Hotel recently have been much intrigued by the artist who has been busy painting the cimeteria, Bird of Paradise flower, and other exotic products of the hotel conservatories. She is Emily Sartain, noted British flower artist, who sold one of her first paintings to Queen Mary in London and several since to other members of the Royal Family.

Those who have watched her at work at the hotel will be interested to learn that she will have an exhibition of her pictures at the Empress during the annual Victoria Spring Garden Festival, to be held from April 30 to May 3 inclusive.

Quite a number of Miss Sartain's exquisite water colors will be of western Canadian wild flowers, which she has been studying since she arrived in this country on what was intended to be a visit, just before the war broke out. There will also be some pictures of English flowers, garden and natives.

With much of the meticulous detail Audubon showed in his painting of natural wild life, Miss Sartain combines delicacy, finesse and sincerity. Most of her work done since she was in the Canadian west has no background. The flowers are gracefully and naturally posed to show their individuality.

Miss Sartain's exhibition will be a delightful and welcome innovation of the festival program.

Noted horticulturists who have written they will be here for the festival include William R. Reader, park's superintendent of Calgary; Norvell Gillespie, Garden Editor of Sunset, and Mrs. Edith Hardin, English botanist from Seattle.

The Saskatchewan W.A. will hold a Valentine Tea tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. E. Clark, 1140 Hilda Street, in aid of the wool fund.

Weddings

VANCOUVER—A couple will make their home in Victoria after spending their honeymoon traveling on the Island, Sgt. and Mrs. Leonard John Robertson, who were married, Tuesday night, in St. Mary's Anglican Church, on 37th, with Rev. James H. Craig officiating. The bride is Dorothy Violet, daughter of Mrs. Brown and the late T. J. Brown, and he is the son of Mrs. Robertson and the late Robert Robertson.

The bride was wearing an attractive rose spring suit of imported wool with a pink straw hat and black accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses and bouvardia. Mrs. Alan Black attended her and wore a frock of whisper blue with wine hat and accessories, and tallsmen roses. C.S.M. Alan Muir, C.A.S.F., was best man and Messrs. David Johnston and the bride's brother, David Brown, ushers.

The bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. E. Brown, received the guests at their home, 2930 West 38th Avenue, assisted by the bride's mother and the groom's mother. The former had chosen a navy and pink frock with pink carnations for the occasion and the groom's mother wore gardenias on her plum crepe ensemble. Mrs. G. C. Cross and Mrs. J. Moorhead presided at the urns, and the serving corps included Mrs. T. J. Brown Jr., Mrs. D. Johnston, Mrs. R. Bridge, Misses Peggy Smart and Margaret Harkirk.

The bride traveled in a black seal coat over her wedding suit.

In Victoria. The C.Y.O. plays for the drama festival were also announced.

The spring fete for St. Ann's to be held after Easter will have afternoon tea and refreshments arranged by Mrs. E. Hornsby. The tea for the Altar Society on Shrove Tuesday is in charge of Mrs. B. Reid and will be held at the Bishop's House, View Street. The result of the annual meeting of Perpetual Help Credit Union was given by Mrs. J. O'Brien. Mrs. McIsaac and Mrs. Shaw reported on the regular hospital visiting, which will be carried on for the coming month by Mrs. P. C. Shaw and Mrs. Kelly.

A Valentine tea will be held in St. Marks Hall tomorrow afternoon at 3 under the auspices of the Women's Auxiliary. Music and contests will form part of the program.

Willows P.T.A. met on Tuesday evening, with Mrs. A. L. Stevenson, the president, in the chair. Final arrangements for the Valentine tea to be held in the school on Friday afternoon at 3.30, were completed. Entertainment will be provided by children of the school. Mrs. George Ingledew of the P.T.A. Council addressed the association regarding the convention to be held in Victoria at Easter. Mrs. H. A. Beckwith, local publicity convener, also spoke regarding the publicity work being carried on in the district for P.T.A. advancement. Moving pictures were shown during the evening and refreshments were served.

Much War Work By Catholic Women

The various committees formed to aid Canada's war effort gave reports and outlined their plans at a meeting of the Catholic Women's League held last evening in the parish hall, View Street, Mrs. W. McManus, the president, in the chair.

At the Knights of Columbus Hut for navy, army and air forces, the senior subdivision will have charge next week of refreshments. Mrs. Cownden and Mrs. Rule are the conveners. A donation of dish towels has been made from the war effort committee.

At the Three Services Canteen the convener, Mrs. E. Masterson, reported that her group, consisting of Mrs. Hunter, Mrs. Shaw, Mrs. Dickenson and herself, had attended every Thursday and certain Sundays, also that on special occasions and emergencies she had been called on to assist.

The Girl Guides' work, reported on by Mrs. Morry, is principally concerned with refugee children. The Victoria West company had recently been awarded a special red ribbon for the best collection of miscellaneous articles to be used by refugees. They have also adopted one child for whom they will provide clothing.

The Red Cross and war effort report given by Mrs. Blair Reid contained a list of 47 articles made. Mrs. Reid had convened a Communion breakfast for men of the air force at the recently opened K. of C. Hut, Government Street. Mrs. McManus and Mrs. Reid have charge of plans for the sale of war savings stamps and certificates in the campaign being opened across Canada beginning February 17, and the names of those ladies who volunteered to help was obtained at the meeting.

A press report of the presentation at Ottawa to Prime Minister the Rt. Hon. Mackenzie King by Archbishop Vachon of the Catholic Women's League war gift of $25,000 was read by Miss Clay. Outlines of study clubs' work and an announcement of a day of recollection to be held at St. Ann's, March 9, were also given. Mrs. Ebbas Canavan mentioned in her education report an exhibition of Indian art to be given by Miss Ravenhill on February 20 and 21.

South Park Pupils Held Valentine Tea

A successful Valentine tea was held yesterday afternoon in the auditorium of South Park School. The pupils in each grade undertook the decorating of the tables (two tables to each grade) and the whole effect receiving much praise. Guests were received by the president, Mrs. D. B. Cantell.

Mr. F. G. Mulliner, chairman of the school board, was present and addressed the meeting. Mrs. George Foster, president of the Victoria West P.T.A., was also welcomed as a guest.

The musical program included ballet dance by Karen Jensen, Mrs. C. C. Warn at the piano; Godfrey H. White, violin solos, accompanied by Mrs. C. C. Warn; vocal solo, Kenneth Clark; piano solo, Shirley Smith and Phyllis Hudson; military tap dance, Yvonne McKiernan; Dutch clog dance, Jimmie Cannon; piano accordion by David Graw; scarf dance by Ann Wilson, Michaela Ciceri, Yvonne McKiernan and Frances Cannon, accompanied by Miss Violet Powkes.

A large Valentine on the stage served as a background and standing therein in appropriate costume were Karen Jensen and Yvonne McKiernan as girl and boy Valentines. Candy was sold by the senior girls who also assisted with the serving of tea.

Mrs. Ashley Cooper spoke of the work of the Red Cross and appealed for helpers to sew for refugee children, to report at 565 Michigan Street any Thursday between 10.30 and 4.30 p.m. Refreshments were served under the convenship of Mrs. A. McKiernan.

Esquimalt W.I. to Ask for Stop Sign

Pianiste Enchants Big Audience With Her Art

By A. D. W.

Madame Gertrude Huntly Green was heard last night in the Empress Hotel in a delightful and finely-balanced piano recital, under the auspices of the Victoria Musical Art Society.

She opened her program in a happy mood with the charming Bach "Arioso," arranged by Barth. The pianist's beautiful limp tone and her instant and complete absorption in the spirit of the music have the effect of creating atmosphere and, consequently, gaining her audience's attention from the very first note.

Following this came the sprightly Scarlatti sonata in A Major, which moved with a vivacious, unbroken rhythm from opening to close, carrying a hint of laughter in the sparkling notes.

This first group also contained the Caprice on Ballet Music from the opera "Alceste," by Gluck-Saint-Saens, and closed with the Prelude, Sarabande, Gavotte, Muzette and Gigue from the English Suite No. 3 in G Minor by Bach.

The simplicity of mood of these latter pieces is contrasted by the intricacy of their technical requirements. Each one was given so individual a treatment by the pianist that they became a succession of clean-cut cameos.

The second part of the program consisted of the Beethoven Sonata in Ab Opus 26, which became steadily finer in mood and clarity as it progressed. Variations, 1, 4 and 5 of the first movement were specially fine, the gentle, introspective theme never being lost, yet given a subtle, changing nuance. The boisterous Scherzo leading into the contrasting Funeral March were magnificently executed, the latter, with its majestic, solemn chords calling forth a depth and richness of tone and feeling not hitherto invoked. The final allegro, played with brilliance and at the same time with all the breadth and sweep demanded of this composition, drew thunderous applause from her listeners.

Following an intermission, during which the stage was covered with beautiful floral tributes, came a group of Brahms and Chopin. The two Brahms numbers, Intermezzo, E Major and Scherzo from Sonata in F Minor, were strongly contrasted, and Mrs. Green demonstrated once more, as she did throughout the program, the perfectly controlled temperament of the great artist who can instantly and completely change from mood to mood, and picture to picture.

Of the three Chopin Etudes, Opus 25, No. 7 and 3, and Opus 10, No. 12, the last, known as the "Revolutionary," full of Chopin's rage and despair over the fall of Warsaw, was outstanding for brilliance of execution and intensity. In adding the "Butterfly" Etude as an encore, the pianist once more drew a marked contrast and proved her complete physical mastery over her instrument.

In the final group, the first number was by Granados, "The Lament of the Maiden to the Nightingale," in which beautiful sustained singing-tone changed to flute-like trills and turns. Of the two Debussy numbers, "General Lavine" (eccentric) was explained by Mrs. Green as a colored acrobatic dancer seen by Debussy in a night club. This, played with humor, was followed by "L'Isle Joyeuse," showing the artist's virtuosic qualities, and only hinting at the wide range of dynamics within her power.

As an encore, Mrs. Green added "Zephyr Study," by Moszkowski, and on being recalled again and yet again, gave "The Last Waltz," Oscar Straus-Godowski and "Clair de Lune," by Debussy, proving herself once more, a poet in music.

Fifty visiting sailors stationed here were guests at a smoking concert given by the civic entertainment committee and the Naval Veterans' branch of the Canadian Legion last night in the naval unit's clubrooms, Broad Street.

Mrs. F. A. Pearce, the treasurer, showed that $371.28 had been raised since last March, which included a donation of $100 from the Canteen Fund. The sum of $280.73 was spent for wool and making up the hampers and individual parcels for the men.

The officers were all re-elected as follows: Honorary president, Mrs. H. C. Greer; president, Mrs. Pearson; vice-president, Mrs. R. H. Green; secretary, Mrs. H. C. Silburn, and treasurer, Mrs. F. A. Pearce.

ST. ANDREW'S Y.P.S.

The Young People's Society of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church will entertain the Chinese Presbyterian Y.P.S. at a Valentine social on Monday, February 17, at 8, in the lecture room. All young people and their friends are welcome and are asked to bring the small admission fee and a card for the Valentine box.

March 20 Date For Trainees' Camps

OTTAWA (CP) — Defence headquarters said yesterday that March 20 has been chosen as the "earliest feasible date" for opening of the fourth compulsory military training period under the national resources mobilization act, first period of four months' duration.

Previously, Prime Minister King said March 15 would be the opening date, but department officials emphasized the "big job" preparing for the revised training program schedule prevented an earlier opening.

A spokesman at National Defence headquarters said a proclamation announcing complete details of the forthcoming training period will be issued shortly.

Lady Chamberlain Dies in London

LONDON (CP)—Lady Chamberlain, widow of Sir Austen Chamberlain, died here today after a short illness.

POWER BEHIND SCENES

Born in 1876, Lady Chamberlain was a tall, gracious woman, 14 years the junior of her famous husband, and noted for her great personal charm. Their wedding, in 1906, was called one of the most notable "political marriages" of their day, for the bride, Ivy Muriel Dundas, was the daughter of an old Yorkshire "political family."

She exhibited her inherited flair for behind-the-scenes management of public affairs in effective electioneering for her husband in the days when he was struggling to consolidate his position in English politics. It was said she drilled into him his distinctive English mannerisms which formed one of his political assets.

Motherhood and the rearing of two sons and a daughter kept her out of the political arena for years but she returned to it, once her family cares lightened.

Always of the ultra-conservative school which Britons call "die-hard Tory," she ignored popular outcries against dictatorships as opposed to democracy. Her greatest interest was in "consolidated, organized peace." L. Carno, with its Franco-German non-aggression pact guaranteed by England and Italy, fitted this idea well. When it faded, with the passing of the German republic, she worked for a substitute four-power treaty against war.

OF "CLIVEN" SET

Lady Chamberlain was one of the outstanding members of the famous Cliven set and there were those who considered her more truly the leading spirit of the famous gatherings there than the hostess itself, and who claimed that she was largely responsible for the "realistic" swing of her brother-in-law, the late Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain, towards Italy and Germany in "appeasement" days.

Benito Mussolini and his son-in-law, Count Galeazzo Ciano, Foreign Minister of Italy, were Lady Chamberlain's chief foreign contacts. Usually when important questions were pending between London and Rome she would happen to be visiting the Italian capital, or hardly on the Riviera. She possessed Italy's Gold Medal of Merit.

Valentine Party Is Heart-strong

Children love the frilly accompaniments of a true valentine party, and grown-ups have a way of falling into the spirit of any occasion which reflects the spirit of the day.

Informal entertainment is usually best, but don't let informality deter you from fussing up a bit at the serving table and in the preparation of refreshments.

When the guests are young, serve simple foods, but doll them up. Examples for supper or luncheon: Creamed chicken or fish in heart bread cases, garnished with tiny cooked beet hearts. Pass graham bread heart sandwiches and, for dessert, jellied raspberry, strawberry or cherry hearts or sugar cookies hearts sprinkled with tiny red candles.

If only refreshments are served your younger guests, make up sandwiches in assorted flavors and "put them in a large red cardboard heart or basket. Tie with fluffy bow and fasten red hearts on the ends. Red and white brick ice cream and white cake conclude this menu.

Since grown-ups usually go in for heavier fare, ham mousse or other gelatine and meat specialty will make a great hit for luncheon or supper. Four into one large mold or individual heart molds. Unmold on cross or shredded lettuce.

Hot buttered asparagus on toast hearts, spiced pears or watermelon rind, cheese heart biscuits or hot rolls and raspberry jam round-out this first course. For dessert consider individual cherry tarts, strawberry shortcake, filled angel food heart masked with whipped cream or clove sherbet with heart cakes.

Here is another luncheon menu: Chicken or tuna croquettes (heart-shaped) with creamed peas, spiced beet hearts, jellied tomato salad (in heart shapes, of course) heart biscuits or melba toast and deep-dish raspberry pudding topped with pastry hearts.

IT'S NO IDLE GOSSIP—
When a cake flour makes baking easier and surer, that's worth talking about.

SWANS DOWN THE SPECIAL FLOUR FOR BETTER BAKING

SWANS DOWN Cake Flour is made purposely to help you bake cakes the way your family likes them—softer, lighter, more temptingly lovely. Milled by the "Controlled Milling Process" from soft winter wheat grown for Swans Down in one particular section, Swans Down is 27 times as fine as ordinary flour. Extra quality and superior fineness enable this special cake flour to react quicker and more efficiently to the leavening process, making it easier for anyone to bake higher, more delicate and appetizing cakes with Swans Down.

Popular With Forces

Over a period of 21 days, a total of 9,000 members of H.M. forces visited the Victoria Hostess Club, Fort Street, it was reported at the monthly executive meeting held Monday, when the conveners of the various committees presented their reports.

The men were most appreciative of the entertainment provided for them in the way of dances, floor shows, games, etc., and the committee expressed its gratitude to the many friends who had assisted in this way, including the concert given by the bands of the forces, and the private motion picture shows.

Mention was made of the lack of a pool table and the hope was expressed that anyone who had such a table not in use would lend it to the club for the use of the men.

Surprised By Mosby's Tonic

Mr. McKenzie Had Years of Suffering Due to Sour, Upset Stomach and Violent Headaches; Now Relates How This New, Scientific Medicine Relieved Him and Says He Feels "Fine Again."

Hundreds of people throughout this entire Western Section are coming forward with their grateful statements, praising and endorsing Mosby's Tonic. This splendid New Medicine is now being introduced to the public daily here in Victoria at the Cunningham Drug Store.

Just a few days ago, the following Sincere Testimonial was received from Mr. Geo. McKenzie of 1932 East 59th St., Vancouver, B.C. Mr. McKenzie has lived in the West 33 years and has hundreds of friends and acquaintances. His statement about Mosby's Tonic is well worth reading. It appears below:

Could Hardly Breathe Due to Stomach Gas

"The first thing I want to say in this statement is that it is the truth, in each and every respect, and I will gladly verify it to anybody," said Mr. McKenzie. "I had gotten into a real suffering condition with a sour, upset stomach. It made me sick to think of eating, and if I did try to eat I would simply be in distress for hours afterward. Another thing, I would have violent headaches both day and night. My rest was repeatedly broken up at nights, due to this suffering condition. 'I felt like I couldn't stand the suffering much longer, and the worst thing was that it looked like nothing could help me, as I tried medicine upon medicine but got no better. Finally I found Mosby's Tonic, and I am simply surprised at what it has done for me. Why, after a FEW DOSES I could see a big change. I kept on with it and now eat my meals with a relish and no gas distress afterward. It invigorated my sluggish bowels and relieved violent headaches and now I can sleep fine at night. In short, I feel like a DIFFERENT PERSON, and I want to say to others who suffer as I did, 'This is the medicine for you. I KNOW!'"

Acts on Bowels, Stomach, Liver, Kidneys

MOSBY'S TONIC contains 20 ingredients, including 15 Roots and Herbs. It acts on the bowels, stomach, liver, kidneys. Makes weak, worn-out people feel different all over. The price of this New, Scientific Compound is reasonable, due to the immense volume in which it sells. So don't hesitate. Get Mosby's Tonic—TODAY!

MOSBY'S TONIC is sold in Victoria at The CUNNINGHAM DRUG STORE, Fort and Douglas Sts., and also sold by all Leading Druggists throughout Victoria and Vancouver Island. (Advt.)

disappeared under the ice, was carried along by the current. Suddenly he appeared again at the small hole shown. He was clinging to the ice when John Breeze rushed to his aid with a rope and drew him to safety. Said 66-year-old Truman Wood: "It was just a bath."

WITH THE FORCES

Tactical Manoeuvres Thrill Nanaimo

NANAIMO (CP) — Nanaimo streets were turned into a sham battleground for two hours yesterday as the Nanaimo garrison of the Canadian (Active) Army staged a tactical manoeuvre to increase interest in the war savings campaign.

Defending companies of the B.C. Regiment (D.C.O.R.) and the Southern Alberta Regiment covered the evacuation of a withdrawing force by rail, road, and even sea at Nanaimo's wharf. The defenders were supported by motor cyclists from a unit training at Duncan.

Other companies attacked, seeking to prevent the withdrawal and occupy the city before the defenders could reach the vessels berthed at the pier.

While hundreds of citizens stood watching in the no-man's-land of the streets, defenders counter-attacked the attacking southland force in an effort to delay occupation of the city.

All business was at a standstill and traffic was halted in the streets while the city was under siege. Motorized vehicles clanked through the streets and flares, smoke bombs and blank cartridges provided a realistic feature.

Brigadier J. B. Stevenson, officer commanding the 10th Brigade, just arrived here to take over the Nanaimo camp and Major H. M. Thomas, brigade major, watched the manoeuvres. The latter acted as director of the tactics.

New York Youth Joins R.C.A.F.

SEATTLE (AP) — H. Rogers Benjamin, wealthy New Yorker, ended a transcontinental airplane dash here yesterday to "talk over" with his son, John, the youth's intention to join the Royal Canadian Air Force—but John wasn't here.

The 19-year-old youth, friends said, was already at Vancouver, B.C., discussing with Canadian authorities the possibility of his joining up. He has been an accountant with the Boeing Aircraft Company here since last October.

Benjamin said his son had received a student pilot's license last summer at Long Island and always had been interested in aviation.

"TO MY VALENTINE"—Ann Rutherford, Canadian-born actress, makes a personal trip to the mail box to send a great big valentine to her favorite beau.

E. W. Scroggs of the staff at Government House, who left recently for Brandon, Man., to join the R.C.A.F.

Woodsmen Train For Any Emergency

They'll be missed in the northern Canadian bushlands—many of the veteran Canadian woodsmen have discarded jackknives and jackboots for battle dress and many are now overseas.

Other companies of the forestry corps are preparing to join them. They needed little training in rifle fire. Years of living in Canada's forests with an axe on one shoulder and a rifle over the other, gave them the necessary experience.

While on active service they will work in close co-operation with the Royal Canadian Engineers and will take part in demolition work.

During the last war it was found necessary to mobilize forestry units for front-line warfare. Many of them had not been trained as fighting troops. They will be prepared this time for trench or any other type of fighting. The men are experienced marksmen as well as skilled bushmen. Training in Canada included stiff rifle and foot drill as well as action on Bren and anti-tank guns.

Talked Too Much

Talking in a bus of blockades and British shipping losses, an R.N.V.R. lieutenant was "severely reprimanded" by a naval disciplinary court for "defeatist talk."

Change in Style Of Army Addresses

OTTAWA (CP) — To conform to authorized change in the title of the Canadian military forces, Postmaster-General Mulock has announced that henceforth the designation "Canadian Army" should be used in addressing mail to soldiers on active service instead of "Canadian Active Service Force."

In addressing mail for delivery overseas the designation "C.A.S.F., care of base post office, Canada," is to be omitted and the words "Canadian Army Overseas" used.

An example: K-52937, Pte. John Blank, "B" Company, Seaforth Highlanders of Canada, Canadian Army Overseas.

If a soldier is overseas, the word "overseas" must appear in the address, but no place name. The usual complete particulars—regimental number, rank and name and details of unit and name of regiment or branch of service, and in addition the post office name of the place in Canada where the soldier is stationed must be used on mail for troops serving in the Dominion.

For example: C-13962, Pte. Joseph Wood, No. 7 Field Hygiene Section, Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps, Debert F.P.O., N.S.

Lock of Equipment Holds Up Volunteers

MONTREAL (CP) — Canada has not been able to use all those who have volunteered for military service since the beginning of the war "because we haven't had the equipment," Hon. J. G. Gardiner, Minister of National War Services, said yesterday.

"When the equipment of war is there, young men of the Empire, yes, young men of the world, will man those instruments," he said.

Referring to the combined appeal for funds which will be launched March 24 by five Canadian organizations which provide auxiliary services for the Canadian armed forces, Mr. Gardiner said: "We are hoping that from now until the end of the war, only one appeal will be made each year for all organizations." Mr. Gardiner said the plan was drawn up after complaints had been heard that too many organizations were making separate campaigns for funds during the year.

Ferrying Bombers Exciting Job

WOODSTOCK, Ont. (CP) — Wallace Siple, 25-year-old aviator and former Norwich district farm boy who has been ferrying bombers from Canada to Britain, is believed to be the youngest flier engaged in that work.

On a visit to his parents here, Mr. and Mrs. Abel Siple, he told of his experiences. He said one bomber which he landed after a trans-Atlantic flight was armed and loaded with bombs and took off on a flight over Germany the same night.

The trans-Atlantic ferrying trips were so secret even workers at the destination in Britain did not know of them. He said that once he landed a bomber and asked where it was to be taken. The air port attendant who told him to leave it in "the same place they always go" was dumfounded when Siple told him: "I've just got here. I don't know where they always go. I'm from Canada."

Siple prefers the flying trip to Britain to the voyage back by steamship. Once Nazis bombed the liner in harbor while he was aboard it. Another time they bombed his hotel when he was preparing to sail.

SURVEY TOURIST CAMP FACILITIES

In anticipation of a heavy summer tourist trade following a good winter business the Department of Trade and Industry will make a survey of tourist camp accommodation in Victoria and Vancouver, E. G. Rowebottom, deputy minister, said today.

The problem of accommodation has been accentuated by the fact that many tourist cabins are being occupied permanently, particularly by officers of the forces, who live out of barracks.

Mr. Rowebottom said he does not anticipate an accommodation shortage next summer, but is making the inquiry to determine the exact status, especially in view of the permanent use of some camps.

Attitude taken by rental control boards to the position of tourist camps rented on steady basis will be a factor, Mr. Rowebottom said.

Rentals were pegged at the rate of January, 1940. During the winter some tourist camp operators rent on a straight monthly basis at a much lower rate than the summer when day-to-day rates are charged for tourists. Permanent residents might object to having their rents raised for the holiday season and appeal to the board.

structured artificial ones adjusted to his stumps, and persuaded the authorities that he is as good an aviator as ever.

He has been decorated by the King for gallantry and leadership in taking his Canadians into action over Dunkerque and also throughout the long-drawn battle of Britain.

DENIES HE BROKE WINDOW IN CAFE

Charged with committing wilful damage to a plateglass window in the Club Cafe, 642 Yates Street, last Saturday night, John Pellow yesterday claimed he was a victim of mistaken identity when his trial opened before Magistrate Henry C. Hall in City Police Court.

Constable Thomas Stevenson testified he saw accused through two heavy beer glasses through the plate glass window in front of the cafe. Witness said accused then ran east on Yates. He caught him on Johnson Street opposite the St. James Hotel.

Pellow stated he was walking on Yates when he heard the noise of breaking glass. At Douglas Street he was accosted by Constable Stevenson, and was accused of breaking the window and was taken to the station. He told the constable he was not the party responsible. He denied he had been running.

He reappeared in court again today and was remanded to tomorrow morning for sentence.

Small Creditor Ruined Turf Club

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—The new $2,000,000 Golden Gate Turf Club, which has some $650,000 in bills outstanding, was thrown into receivership on petition of a creditor seeking collection of less than $150, it was learned yesterday.

The horse racing plant previously had instigated a voluntary petition in bankruptcy and had submitted a plan to pay off debts. The action had been taken to insure operation of the track.

Chairman Jerry Giesler of the California Horse Racing Commission Tuesday suspended the track's licence indefinitely, saying the club had failed to comply with the conditions specified in the application. Heavy rains, which caused five postponements since the originally scheduled opening last December 28, whipped the track into a muddy mess. It was resurfaced once, but fresh rains caused racing board representatives to rule it unsafe for jockeys and horses.

MAN MAY LOSE SMUGGLED GOLD

SEATTLE (AP)—Charged with attempting to bring from B.C. into the United States approximately $55,000 in gold bars, an Australian today faced the threat of losing all of the metal fortune.

Leo E. Morland said it was his lifetime savings.

Assistant United States Attorney Frank Pellegrini said he would seek forfeiture of the gold.

Morland was arrested Tuesday at Blaine.

Morland said he had smuggled it out of Australia and into Canada, hoping to retire.

Willkie Urges Higher Goal

NEW YORK (AP)—Wendell L. Willkie last night called Winston Churchill, Britain's Prime Minister, the "greatest public figure in the world."

Willkie, 1940 Republican presidential candidate, addressed a gathering of 2,200 persons celebrating Lincoln's birthday at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel under the auspices of the National Republican Club.

3 GREAT HEROES

After his introductory remarks Willkie described Lincoln, Robert E. Lee and George Washington as three great "heroes" of the United States, and declared the one great quality they had in common was "magnanimity."

Referring to the birth of the Republican Party, he declared that "we were founded to preserve freedom."

"And if we will but remember that, we cannot fail. But if we become like the Whig Party—merely the party of negation, merely the party of opposition, merely those who find fault and who, in one of the critical moments of history, find nothing nobler to do than compromise, this great party will pass from the scene."

"I am here to speak to you tonight, to challenge you to a higher destiny than the destiny of compromise and negation and failure and death."

"Here we are, at this moment, in this peaceful ballroom, untouched, happy, gay, buoyant, little troubled—and yet within a distance that I recently traveled by a round-about way, within three days, bombs were dropping, destroying cities lived in by free men, free men like us."

"Yet some men rise and say 'that is no trouble of ours. Let us preserve America alone!'"

He said the Democratic way of life could not survive in the United States if it were vanquished in Britain, and challenged the Republican Party to take a positive stand on, and lead in, the fight for aid to Britain.

"Have you got it in you?" he cried.

Highlanders Stay

OTTAWA (CP)—Air Minister Power told the press today that Wilfrid Lacroix, M.P., Quebec-Montmorency, "is not directing the policy of this department, never has done so, and never will."

Power, as associate defence minister was asked if action had been taken on Lacroix's request that a Highland battalion be removed from Quebec following a battle with French-Canadian police last week, when a number were injured.

"If the Highland Light Infantry is removed from Valcartier it will be in the ordinary course of operational policy, and not because of anything Mr. Lacroix said,"

Power added. "Quebec is a part of Canada and any Canadian regiment can be stationed there as well as in any other province."

Power said a board of inquiry will make a full report.

SIDNEY FLIER DIES—Edward

"Ted" Carter, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Carter of Sidney, who died in Nottingham General Hospital, England, February 8, from injuries sustained in a flying accident. An exceptionally well-known young resident of Sidney, young Carter left there in June, 1939, and joined the Royal Air Force, entering as wireless operator and becoming air gunner before being qualified as sergeant in May last year. He was born in Winnipeg and arrived in Sidney with his parents in 1932. He was a member of the 16th Canadian Scottish for several years. A brother, Victor, lives at Hammond, on the mainland.

CHINA UNDAUNTED

Japanese bombs cannot remove the work Christ has begun in China, Dr. Andrew Gih, Chinese Evangelist, told a capacity audience in First Baptist Church last night.

Dr. Gih is in the city on a lecture tour. He will speak again this evening and tomorrow evening at Central Baptist Church. He will address students of Victoria College tomorrow at noon on the subject "China Calling."

For every hospital destroyed in China two were being built, Dr. Gih said. For every orphanage destroyed there were five new ones under construction and for every Bible school bombed, two more were being built.

"If we were all filled with the Holy Spirit and preached the gospel, world conditions would be different today," he said.

There were 30,000,000 children of school age in China—nine times the population of Canada—and 20,000,000 were war orphans.

Dr. Gih has travelled over 40,000 miles in the past year during which time he has given 641 public addresses. In China his work included caring for more than 500 war orphans rescued from the war area.

ISLAND BOY MISSING—Mr. and Mrs. Trafford of Vesuvius Bay, Salt Spring Island, were advised yesterday their son, Sergeant R. H. Trafford of the Royal Air Force was missing after a flight over enemy territory. Since he joined the R.A.F. he had had exciting adventures. He bailed out of a plane and smashed a leg in landing last July. A few months later his plane crashed again. It was starting, loaded, on a bombing raid. He received injuries to head and chest. Air Ministry Information said Trafford was reported missing February 4.

Sports Mirror

By PETE SALLAWAY

OPENING of the league basketball playoffs in Vancouver brings to mind the British Columbia series which is the provincial duel being another of those knock-em-down, drag-em-out affairs. Annual battle between the champions of Victoria and Vancouver is the yearly highlight of the cage season and usually leaves the players and fans weak at the knees from the pressure.

If the league record counts for anything, the Dominos are a cinch to cop the local championship. To date the former national champs are unbeaten locally and we can't see the Tillicum Athletic Club Arrows, further weakened by the loss of Sonny Walker, taking the Dominos over the barrel. It would be the upset of all upsets. In Vancouver the experts have picked Varsity to finish on top. The students defeated Angelus last night to earn the by in the playoffs. Somehow we have a sneaking hunch Leafs will again pull through, although that old college spirit is sometimes awfully tough to whip.

Imagine our surprise to note where Stu Keate, Province scribe, who usually takes keen pleasure in trying to know down anything that flavors of Victoria, has picked the Dominos to win the B.C. championship. He figures the local stars will take the final from the Vancouver representatives (and he likes Varsity) in five games.

Chatted to Art Chapman the other night, following a work-out of the Dominos. "Boy, we sure went through a stiff session tonight," he said. "We should win the B.C. this season. With Norm Baker, Bush Jackson and brother Chuck pushing the ball through in their present form I don't have to worry about getting points any more, except maybe from the odd sneaker. My job is to get in the bucket and act as feeder. And, strangely enough, I like it," Chapman declared. That's from a fellow who used to lead the Dominos' attack night and night with anything from 10 to 20 points.

Dominos will go up against Seattle All-stars Saturday night. On February 28 and March 1 they will get a couple of grand tune-up games for provincial playoffs (providing they whip the Arrows) by engaging the Broadway Clowns, touring negro professional club, in two exhibitions. The provincial series will open March 14 at Vancouver.

Trying to figure out what's wrong with the New York Rangers in the current National Hockey League campaign is a tough job. Glancing over the scoring figures, one sees where the club has had far more goals scored against it this season as compared to last. That would suggest the defence is not holding up. There has been no criticism hurled at goalie Dave Kerr so he cannot have been getting the usual protection from the defence-men.

Then the Blueshirts go up against the next-to-tail-end Montreal Canadiens and the forwards find to score a goal in a 6 to 2 setback, both the New York counters being registered by Art Coulter, defence star. On the other side of the ledger you find four of the Ranger forwards, Bryan Hextall, Phil Watson, Neil Colville and Lynn Patrick up with the scoring leaders. You figure it out; we have a headache.

Raiders Fly

Swamp Nanaimo 17-0

League Standing	W.	L.	T.	Pts.
Victoria	5	1	1	11
D.C.O.R.	5	1	1	11
S.A.R.	4	3	0	8
Nanaimo	2	6	0	4
Port Alberni	1	6	0	2

Victoria's Duroid Raiders showed no mercy to the team that handed them their only defeat at the opening of the season when they swamped Nanaimo 17 to 0 at the up-island town last night in a Vancouver Island Intermediate Hockey League clash. From the opening whistle Victoria applied the pressure and they never let up in their drive on the Nanaimo goal.

In the opening game on the double bill D.C.O.R. defeated Port Alberni 9 to 1 to remain dead-decked with the Raiders for first place.

"Chuck" Taylor, starry centre from Brandon, Manitoba, led the Raiders attack with four goals and one assist. He opened the scoring only two minutes after the game started taking a two-way pass from Fontana and Gibb.

Victoria's defence showed marked improvement in clearing the puck from in front of the goal and also in body-checking the opposing players. Bill Sutherland, playing his first game in goal since joining the Raiders, had a comparatively easy night in the net, but handled all that came his way to earn a well-deserved shutout, which was the first one gained by any goaltender in the league.

GOALIE INJURED

Clarke, playing goal for Nanaimo, received a painful face injury in the second period and was replaced at the beginning of the third by Boag, sub goalie for Victoria, who met with little success against his high-flying teammates.

Varsity Cagers Lucky

Awarded Basket to Win

VANCOUVER (CP)—Varsity edged out a 36 to 35 win over Angelus here last night to earn a bye into the playoffs of the Inter-city Basketball League. The teams had finished the season tied for first place honors, making necessary last night's sudden death affair.

Angelus held a 7 to 6 advantage at the end of the first quarter but weakened and were at the short end of a 21 to 12 count at the half. Varsity continued in the lead 28 to 24 at the end of the third quarter.

The Angelus squad regained the lead in the final quarter and were ahead 35 to 34 with less than two minutes to play. Wally Johnston of Varsity then sent a long shot which rimmed the basket and rolled out. Earl McDonagh of Angelus jumped up and touched the netting, however, and the students were awarded the extra two points, giving them the victory.

Arnie Burnstead of Angelus and Pat Flynn of Varsity took scoring honors with 10 points each.

Bob Kruse Will Meet Thunderbird

Bob Kruse, bad man of Pacific Northwest wrestling, is coming back to town. Promoter Art Kyle announced today the Oregon heavyweight had been secured to battle Chief Thunderbird, Victoria Indian grappler, in one half of the double main event of Saturday night's card at the Army and Navy Veterans' auditorium.

Kruse, greatest wrestler expert to ever show here, will go up against Thunderbird over five 10-minute rounds or best two of three falls. On last Saturday's opening card Thunderbird registered a victory over Andre Anderson.

Second half of the main event, over the same route, will see Jack McLaughlin, Vancouver star, step into the ring with Tex Hager, McLaughlin, former middleweight, now wrestles at 190 pounds and according to reports has lost none of his speed despite the added poundage. McLaughlin and Hager put on a rousing bout in Vancouver several weeks ago.

In the preliminary two local boys will show.

Stan Miles, who proved so popular with the crowd last Saturday, will again be the referee.

RUGBY GAMES AT MACDONALD PARK

Barnard Cup rugby games Saturday will be played at MacDonald Park.

Canadian Scottish and Navy will meet on the upper field and Garrison and J.B.A.A. on the lower field. Starting times are set for 2.45.

Howard Has Problem

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Charlie Howard, the wealthy San Francisco horse owner, has quite a problem.

He doesn't know whether to shoot a double-barrelled threat at a $100,000 purse, or save one barrel and aim it at more glory than gold.

Howard's crack Porter's Cap thoroughly thumped a field of the finest three-year-olds campaigning in the west yesterday when he won the $50,000 Santa Anita Derby.

The beautiful chestnut son of the Porter took charge of the race coming into the stretch and easily subdued Mrs. Anthony Pelletier's Bull Reigh by four lengths, and left Copperman to beat out Welcome Pass in the photo-finish third.

The distance was a mile and one-eighth. Porter's Cap carried the usual Derby weight for this event of 120 pounds, and his rider, Jockey Leon (Buddy) Hass, declared he had plenty of run left for a mile and one-quarter, if need be.

The point is that the $100,000 Santa Anita Handicap March 1 is to be run at a mile and one-quarter, and so is the famed Kentucky Derby later this spring. Porter's Cap is weighed at a mere 104 for the Santa Anita Handicap, and the Kentucky Derby scale is 126 for colts.

TOUGH DECISION

Howard is perplexed. He doesn't know whether to send Porter's Cap into the big handicap here and try to win his third cup—and huge pot of gold—in the event, or perhaps save Porter's Cap for the less rich Kentucky Derby and other engagements for three-year-olds that will follow.

As for yesterday's race, it was perhaps the most truly run of the Derby history. Porter's Cap proved he was the best colt in the field. Able ridden, he moved from fifth place on the backstretch to collar Bull Reigh when ordered, leaving the pace-setting Madigama to fade back, far out of the money.

Bull Reigh was the only rival that had a chance to offer a duel, and he couldn't. He had enough trouble hanging on to keep Copperman and the late-charging Welcome Pass from beating him out of the place position. Swain, Nasca, Good Turn—which defeated Porter's Cap in a shorter

Fight Card Set Tomorrow Night

Amateur boxing and wrestling will be staged tomorrow evening at the Victoria Boys' Athletic and Hobby Club, Cook Street.

The card of five boxing and two wrestling bouts will get under way at 8.

Louis Callan, director of the club, will be in charge. Plenty of action is promised in both the glove throwing and mat contests.

Allan Duval and Ben Fairclough will meet in the main boxing bout in the 150-pound class. In the 126-pound class Roy Duval will fight an air force boy and in the 110-pound class Bob Ross and Lawrence Booth will see action. Two 75-pound division bouts will be seen with Sid Jones meeting Edward Cooper and Billy Sims meeting Arthur Green.

Two wrestling matches will bring together Ram Singh and Bing Lowe, and Abraham Kudra and Phula Singh.

U-Drive Teams Win Table Tennis

Play in the first division of the City Table Tennis League last night resulted in a 19 to 17 win for Sylvester U-Drive over Macdonald Electric and a 22 to 14 win for Hill's U-Drive over Liberty Cafe.

Island Playoffs

Eagles, Adverts Win

Eagles took the lower island senior B men's basketball title and Adverts, the lower island intermediate A girls' championship, last night at the Sports Centre.

Eagles beat Chamainus men 41 to 33 in the second and final game of a total-point series. Locals won by two points in the first game in Nanaimo last week.

Adverts had an easier time with Chamainus girls, winning by a score of 26 to 14 after starting the game with a 26-point lead.

A third game scheduled, Hornby's Hornets vs. Duncan, senior C men's teams, developed into an exhibition game, which Duncan won 33 to 22. Hornets were unable to field a team as the result of a measles bug running amok in their camp, and Duncan, rather than take the game by default, agreed to playing an exhibition.

From the opening whistle Manager Ted Scroggs' Eagles went to work on the five-man Chamainus club, and although the feathered men held the lead throughout, visitors were always close.

STAN DAVIES HIGH

Score at half-time was 20 to 15. Eagles were led in scoring by Stan Davies, who accounted for 15 points. Jack Naylor was top scorer for Chamainus with 14 points. M. Johnson was next to Naylor with 11 points.

Adverts hadn't a worry in their game with Chamainus girls. With the 26-point lead tucked safely in their pockets, locals were a cinch to win. They led 17 to 4 at half time and in the second session coasted.

Chemainus fought pluckily, with "Jackie" and Margaret Eberts leading the way, but the team was no match for Adverts.

Takes Title By Less Than Point

ARDMORE, Pa. (AP)—Canadians won the women's and men's singles titles in the final of the North American figure skating championships on the Philadelphia Skating Club rinks last night.

Mary Rose Thacker, 17-year-old Winnipeg girl, successfully defended her championship in the women's singles by winning the nods of all six judges. Ralph McCreath, University of Toronto senior, came from behind in the school figures to win the men's title by eight-tenths of a point.

By a spectacular free skating exhibition, McCreath won back more than a 31.2-point edge Eugene Turner of Los Angeles had gained on him.

Hoppe Within Two Games of Victory

CHICAGO (AP)—Willie Hoppe came from behind last night to defeat Chicago's Alien Hall 50 to 48 and maintain his first-place standing in the $20,000 world's three-cushion billiards tournament. The match went 56 innings.

Hoppe, who suffered his first tournament defeat Tuesday night, has now won 14 games and needs two more victories to clinch the title.

Murder Case Is Nearing Close

Preliminary hearing in the murder trial of Everest Archie Alexander, better known as Jack Archie, continued in Provincial Police Court before Magistrate Henry Hall yesterday, with five witnesses being examined. Crown counsel, W. E. Colvin, will complete the Crown's case next Wednesday afternoon when five Indian witnesses will testify.

Archie is charged with the murder of Alphonse Kelly, one-legged Indian, and is being defended by Herb W. Davey.

Edward W. Cowell, Sidney butler, testified that Archie and Kelly sold him 11 crabs on the day of Kelly's death. Both were sober at the time, he said.

Donald Gould, James Island-Saanichton ferry operator, said he heard two distinct shots above the sound of the ship's motor at 10 on the night of December 27. He could not tell whether they were revolver or rifle shots, but said the reports came in quick succession, with no more than a second's interval. He had seen no Indian canoe on the water that afternoon or night.

Provincial Police Sergeant Jacob Young testified he had examined the empty .30-30 shell and rifle found on the sea floor off the East Saanich Reserve in the vicinity of where Kelly's body had been discovered under an overturned canoe and had found the shell had been fired by that rifle. He supported his testimony with photographs. He said he was on hand when Archie made statements to officers on the reserve on December 28 and remembered Archie saying he had left a rifle in the canoe when he left Kelly on the night of December 27. He also heard Archie state he had four shells for the gun, but when he went to get them was only able to find three.

Saanich game warden, Joseph W. Jones, corroborated evidence given earlier as to statements made by Archie. A V. Longhurst, assistant undertaker at Sands Mortuary, also testified.

GARAGE MEN SEEK SATURDAY HOLIDAY

Introduction of Saturday half-day closing in Victoria will be recommended to the City Council by the Garage and Motor Trades Association it was decided at a meeting Wednesday at the Buffalo Hall.

The progress made by the Vancouver branch of the association was reviewed and discussed with the view of directing the efforts of the Victoria association in this matter and bringing it before the City Council as quickly as possible.

The meeting was told the Saturday half-holiday is almost an accomplished fact in Vancouver and only requires the concerted effort on the part of Victoria garage men to assure its complete enactment here.

A dance under the auspices of the association will be held February 28 at the Palais de Dance.

FUN IN FIGURES

Deviating from the subject of astronomy, Professor W. H. Gage of the University of British Columbia and formerly an instructor at Victoria College last night gave an amusing speech on mathematics and their history to members of the Victoria Centre of the Royal Astronomical Society in the Y.W.C.A. building.

Talking on the subject "Exceptions to the Rule," Professor Gage gave the historical background of mathematics, linking it in some respects to astronomical history. He amused the audience by his humorous references to Zeno's paradoxes of pre-Christian days, which even until this day, he said, had not been solved to the complete satisfaction of everybody.

Dr. R. M. Petrie, president of the Victoria branch of the society, announced that arrangements had been completed for all members wishing to construct telescopes to procure advice and help. He said that telescopes up to six inches in aperture could be built at moderate prices by people who have the time to devote to the work.

Gordon Shaw mentioned that four dollars would cover the cost of grinding a pair of discs for a telescope of that size.

Observations on current astronomical phenomena were given by Robert Petrie.

Junior Red Cross Tea at Oak Bay

Oak Bay High School girls entertained 150 parents and friends at a tea yesterday afternoon which netted the school's Junior Red Cross Club $60. The tea was held under the joint auspices of the Junior Red Cross Club and the Discussion Club, presidents of which are Jean Murray and Bobbie Murray, respectively.

Table decoration contests and a cake-making contest were held.

ward won first prize in the cake-baking contest. Prizes were presented by Mrs. C. H. Rutherford, wife of a member of the Oak Bay board of school trustees.

A musical program was given with Jean Dumerton rendering songs; Patricia Straughan, violin solos, and Vera Wood and Gwen Woolcock, piano duets. Vera Wood and Helen McRae were accompanists.

of misdirection by the trial judge in his charge to the jury, and on the grounds the pair had elected speedy trial and had wound up before the Assize Court.

Inability of W. H. Campbell, crown counsel, to give definite action on the point of election caused postponement of the hearing and transfer of the case to Vancouver.

ROYAL TRUST POSITION STRONG

The 41st annual general meeting of the shareholders of the Royal Trust Company was held at the head office of the company Tuesday. The president, Huntly R. Drummond, presided. In his remarks to the shareholders, Mr. Drummond said that cheap rates for money involving low returns on investments had seriously affected the revenues of estates and, in turn, had lowered the company's income based on such revenues.

"After 41 years of service to the public," said Mr. Drummond, "the reputation of the company soundly established, which is shown by the increasing number of people who make the company their executor." The president pointed to the company's strong position, with reserves of approximately two and a half times the value of the stock.

The directors' report, which was read by R. P. Jellett, vice-president and general manager, showed that profits for the year amounted to $543,351.71, out of which $184,265.25 had to be set aside for the payment of taxes, leaving net profits of $359,086.46. The balance of profit and loss account carried forward from December 31, 1939, was $1,007,123.30, out of which there was paid in January, 1940, a bonus of $80,000 on the company's stock, leaving $927,123.30 in profit and loss account. To this was added the net profits for the year, making a total of $1,286,209.76, from which was paid the regular quarterly dividends aggregating $320,000, leaving a balance of $966,209.76 to be carried forward.

Transfer Appeals

Hearing of the appeals of Arthur Sayers and Joe Hall from convictions carrying sentences of five and seven years, respectively, were adjourned by the Court of Appeal yesterday to the Vancouver sitting.

The two were sentenced by Mr. Justice Manson at the last Vancouver Assizes following conviction on charges of conspiring to steal $1,850 from Gottfried Lehman, an alleged German national, who reportedly drew his money from a Vancouver bank and hid it in a truck, from which it was reported stolen.

KISS YOUR TIRED FEELING GOODBYE!

Pepples Many Suffer Low Blood Count—And Don't Know It.

The baffling thing about low blood count is that you can weigh about as much as you ever did—even look healthy and strong, yet you can feel as if you had led in your legs, doped, tired and peeples.

Low blood count means you haven't got enough red blood corpuscles. It is their vital job to carry life-giving oxygen from your lungs throughout your body. And just as it takes oxygen to explode gasoline in your car and make the power to turn the wheels, so you must have plenty of oxygen to explode the energy in your body and give you going power.

Get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills today. They are world-noted for the help they give in increasing the number and strength of red corpuscles. Then with your blood count up, you'll feel like bounding up the stairs as if you were floating on air. Ask your druggist for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills today.

YOU BECOME WHAT YOU EAT!

It cannot be doubted that the greatest evil of our civilization is wrong foods and feeding methods; trying to live upon unnatural constipating foods and ignoring the food-gifts of Nature which come from the farm and field. Now in his 63rd year

Our resistance to sickness and debility is maintained and measured by the amount of vitality we possess and vitality can be obtained and maintained by eating foods that have in them a vital life principle which they can transfer to us.

I positively assert that if you, well or ill, will eat one full meal daily of any one of my natural whole-grain cereals, Dr. Jackson Meal (formerly Roman Meal) Bekus-Puddy, or Lishes; one meal consisting largely of green vegetable salad, or fresh fruit; consume milk and cheese freely, and drink four to six cups daily of my alkaline beverage Kofy Sub, choosing the balance of the food intake from simple, sensible foods, you will realize why I, at 63, am younger in mind and more vigorous in body than 90% of men and women in their early forties.

B.C. Tobacco Fund For Boys in Britain

The Department of Trade and Industry announces the launching of the British Columbia Overseas Tobacco Fund for the furnishing of Canadian cigarettes and tobacco to British Columbia boys serving with the armed forces in Britain.

"The plan originated with W. A. McAdam, our acting-Agent-General in London," explained E. G. Rowbottom, Deputy Minister of Trade and Industry, today. "And he has been successful in arranging with the British customs for shipments made by the fund to enter duty free. Actually, he has gone considerably farther than that, and has undertaken to see that all such shipments are delivered promptly to the addressees. Through the organization which has been created in the Department of Trade and Industry, the orders will be consolidated and forwarded regularly to the manufacturers, who in turn will make up bulk shipments to Mr. McAdam. A simple but fully effective system has been devised whereby all individual orders will be acknowledged, the recipients advised, and the manufacturers and Mr. McAdam informed with all particulars. "The plan applies only to Britain, since it is only with the British customs that arrangements have been made, but it covers all British Columbians serving with the armed forces, no matter in what branch of the service or what the date of enlistment. This includes, of course, the Royal Air Force.

"While the B.C. Overseas Tobacco Fund offers no more for the money than the others which are already in existence, namely 300 cigarettes or 1 pound of tobacco for $1, or 1,000 cigarettes for $2.50, it has the great advantage that losses at sea will be replaced without cost to the senders."

"We have been extremely fortunate," added Mr. Rowbottom, "in securing the co-operation of Junior Boards of Trade, Chambers of Commerce, the United Commercial Travelers, and kindred bodies throughout the province. In Victoria the local operation of the fund is in the hands of the Victoria Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Posters announcing the fund, and order blanks, are in the hands of local tobacco dealers

FIRST AID CHART FOR AILING MENUS

	FISH AND MEATS —When you're tired of the "same old thing": A garnish of easy-to-squeeze lemon quarters—with colour to attract the eye and juice to bring out flavour!
	SALADS —When salads lack glamour, add fresh lemon juice dressing—for its tempting piquancy—and to bring out the salad flavours!
	VEGETABLES —Add lemon juice while cooking (it points up flavours, restores vitamin C, retards darkening)—or serve vegetables with lemon quarters for decoration and flavour.
	DESSERTS —For a spirit-lifting surprise—fresh lemon meringue pie! For a light-tasting dessert—the tangy, inviting flavour of lemons in a pudding, gelatine or ice!
	JUICES —To give them freshening zip and zest: Add lemon juice to orange, tomato, pineapple or any juice. (Serve with one or two lemon quarters.)

GOOD HEALTH, as well as good flavour, is an important reason for using lemons liberally! They supply vitamins C and B₁. Aid digestion, help maintain your alkaline balance. So buy lemons by the dozen and never be without them.

Two lovely De Luxe La Salle Sedans, one a '37, the other a '38. They've had admirers and would-be owners by the score, but no one who seemed willing to pay the price they are actually worth. But they MUST be sold, so here we go "Off the Deep End." $1,095 and $995! No need to argue about these prices, and the cars are in perfect condition in every respect. Ever hear the expression, "Chance of a Lifetime"? Well this is really and definitely IT.

TOWN TOPICS

Miss Evelyn Beatrice Finlayson was appointed by the government today as deputy registrar of voters for Esquimalt, Saanich and Victoria districts.

Bank clearings in the city for the week ending today were $1,576,594, Victoria Clearing House officials report. Clearings for the corresponding period of last year were $1,567,116.

Six persons were fined a total of $95 and $6 costs in City Police Court this morning for failing to have trades' licenses. Three motorists were fined $2.50 each for parking violations.

Tomorrow afternoon Mrs. Suter and Mrs. K. R. Genn will be joint hostesses at a silver tea to be held at the home of Mrs. K. R. Genn, Cordova Bay. Proceeds to the Red Cross.

A total of $20.10, net proceeds from Sunday's cheer-up concert at the York Theatre, was turned over to the Lord Mayor's fund today. In all, the collection amounted to $56.15. Of that $36.05 was absorbed by expenses.

His Honor E. W. Hamber, Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia, will be absent from Victoria from February 16 to March 2, during which time Chief Justice Macdonald of the Appeal Court will act as administrator of the province.

Provincial appointments today included Dr. W. B. Clarke of Invermere and Dr. H. Emanuel of Pioneer Mines to be medical health officer and school health inspectors for their districts, and Frederick Breaks of Cloverdale to be a justice of the peace.

Colored moving pictures of scenes in Alberta, featuring the Calgary Stampede, were shown by J. Carl Pendray to members of the Rotary Club today. All the pomp and color of the large parade prior to the actual stampede and the thrilling moments of the steer and broncho riding and chuck wagon races was captured by films. Other scenes were of Edmonton and highways and the golf course at Banff.

In Provincial Police Court yesterday 10 motorists were fined a total of $80 for traffic infractions. Six were fined $5 and $2.50 costs for not having current driver's licenses. One motorist who failed to heed the order that he must wear glasses when driving was fined $5 and $2.50 costs, while another was fined $10 and $2.50 costs for speeding. Two who did not have adequate brakes on their cars were fined $5 and $2.50 costs each. Magistrate Henry Hall commented in regard to inadequate brakes that this was one of the most dangerous faults a car could have.

Mrs. Juliette Kendall was found guilty on a charge of failing to return to the scene of an accident and was fined $20 by Magistrate Henry Hall in City Police Court today. Evidence showed that Mrs. Kendall, driving east on Yates Street on February 1, struck a car driven by Mrs. Elizabeth Jones and did not stop. Mrs. Kendall told the court she did not think the damage was substantial and was not aware that the law required her to return to the scene of an accident, render assistance if possible and leave her name and address. She said she spoke to Mrs. Jones on the telephone the next day.

Quarter of People
Take Stamp Rebates

The provincial war savings committee announced today that 22.5 per cent of the people entitled to B.C. income tax rebates have agreed to accept them in war savings stamps.

This calculation is based on returns from only 15 per cent of more than 120,000 people entitled to refunds and augurs well for the success of the savings plan. Approximately $1,000,000 is refunded to British Columbia taxpayers each year and if the present percentage is maintained it will produce about $250,000 for war stamps.

In some districts as high as 40 per cent of the people are accepting stamps instead of cash. When a person signs "yes" on the pink slip attached to his income tax return he receives a special cheque, cashable only in stamps.

EGG GRADING
RULES PASSED

Egg grading regulations for British Columbia under the Poultry Products Act of last session were approved by government order in council today. They provided that wholesalers and retailers of eggs must follow strict rules regarding the advertising, sale and handling of eggs according to grade. Sale of eggs by farmers to retailers is not affected. Agricultural Department officials said the regulations actually make little change in existing egg marketing, but legalize powers that Dominion grading officials have been using.

Beacon Hill Oaks
Causing Concern

The city parks committee yesterday weighed sentiment against safety as it considered removal of old Gary oaks from Beacon Hill Park.

No action was taken in respect to that type of tree, but the cutting of dead and dying balsam firs and alder will be recommended to the City Council.

The oaks, H. W. Warren, parks superintendent, reported, were a danger in their present condition. His position on those and other trees was supported by J. Biers and F. S. McKinnon, Provincial Department of Lands forestry officials who inspected the trees. The latter, however, declined to make any recommendation on the oaks.

Receive Books

The City School Board this week acknowledged with thanks the donation of 15 volumes entitled "Beautiful Britain" to the expanding Victoria High School library. The gift was made by Mrs. A. Forrest Angus, 1082 Richmond Avenue. The volumes, bound in gold embossed leather, are illustrated with more than 1,000 colored plates of places of interest in England, Scotland, Ireland and Wales.

The Dickens Fellowship meeting Monday evening in the clubrooms, 301 Union Building, will be a Dickens birthday celebration with the address on "Charles Dickens," given by A. W. Crump. A Dickensian query program will be conducted by G. R. Thomson. All interested in the works of Charles Dickens are invited to attend.

Monster Parade Planned
For War Savings Drive

In connection with the war savings drive being conducted in Greater Victoria, a monster military parade will be staged through the streets of the business section of the city a week Saturday.

Plans are rapidly going ahead for the parade which will be led by detachments from the navy, army and air force, with their brass bands.

It will be the first major public appearance for the air force and navy bands.

A meeting of members of the war savings committee and representatives from the various veterans' organizations of the city took place yesterday and the veterans promised full support in the parade.

Arrangements were made at the meeting also to have a detachment of A.R.P. wardens of the Civilian Protection Committee, march.

Many other public and semi-public organizations will take part.

An appeal was sent out from savings headquarters, Government Street, yesterday for volunteer workers for the women's division, payroll savings group. This division is canvassing business firms of less than 10 employees soliciting support in the drive. Those willing to devote some time to this work are asked to telephone Mrs. Carew Martin, committee chairman, E 6676.

NEED WORKERS

The men's war savings committee, under the chairmanship of J. Barracough, is busy canvassing large business firms for participation of employees in the drive.

Valuable Medicinal Herb—

Save B.C.'s Cascara Committee's Aim

Steps to protect a fast-vanishing supply of the important medicinal herb cascara in British Columbia were initiated today at a meeting of botanical experts connected with the agricultural production committee of the provincial government, working with the forestry, education and other branches of the service.

A survey conducted by the forest branch during the winter has revealed that barely a dozen years supply of the cascara tree remains at the present rate of cutting, and it is the only native supply in the British Empire.

The botanical group, consisting of Prof. John Davidson of U.B.C., chairman, Dr. William Newton of the Saanich Experimental Farm, and J. W. Eastham, provincial plant pathologist, outlined a plan this morning to have lectures on the cascara tree in the schools and to have the tree featured on Arbor Day. Through this medium, it is hoped, families all over the province will be acquainted with the plant.

Children will be told how to recognize the tree, how to cut it, and how to plant the seeds.

"Many farmers may have cascara trees growing alongside their back fences," said J. B. Munro, deputy minister of agriculture. "They do not know its value because they are unfamiliar with the plant."

Prof. Davidson said present harvesting methods of the "pill tree" were ruinous. The bark is stripped completely off and the skeleton of the tree dies.

Botanical tests show, he said, that the wood is just as valuable for medicinal purposes as the bark. The proper way is to cut the entire tree back to a one-foot stump. This will produce new shoots and a new crop.

HERB INDUSTRY

The committee is also looking into the possibilities of the cascara as foundation for a medicinal herb industry in British Columbia. R. S. O'Meara, director of trade extension, discussed this phase with the experts.

There are half-a-dozen herbs native to British Columbia that can be converted into drugs in a commercial way, Prof. Davidson explained. There are many others that might be developed.

For years British Columbia has shipped out hundreds of tons of cascara bark to be manufactured in other parts of the world. Cutting is largely done by Japanese.

Prof. Davidson pointed out that mass stripping of bark in Washington and Oregon has almost eliminated the cascara tree. Only by teaching the public the proper way to cultivate it can British Columbia's supply be maintained.

New Canada-U.S. Defence Measure

$9,000,000 Airport System in North

OTTAWA (CP)—Air Minister Power today announced a system of airports through Alberta and British Columbia, leading to Alaska, is being established by the Canadian government at a cost of approximately $9,000,000. This undertaking by the Dominion is a defence measure. The minister also told newspapermen that extensions and improvements to operational home defence bases of the Royal Canadian Air Force are being undertaken at a cost of about $20,000,000.

Supplies necessary for construction of the bases are being rushed to the sites before the spring break-up.

While entirely a Canadian undertaking, the bases will be available for United States planes, and over it United States commercial and war planes may proceed to Alaska.

At Whitehorse the service will connect with the Pan-American Airways—operating along the coast from Seattle to Alaska.

Will Open Areas in North Canada

Officials here said in addition to being of advantage to the United States air force it should go a long way to opening up that part of Canada.

"It will greatly increase the flexibility of the United States fighter air force," one spokesman said. "At present fighter planes have to be moved by steamship from Seattle to the Yukon. When this route is finished it will be possible for planes to rush across western Canada in unlimited numbers."

To Prepare For Longest Planes

From information gathered outside the press conference room from well-informed sources it was understood that in the northwestern string, seven bases will be built, equipped to handle the largest airplanes and provide an air route from Edmonton to Whitehorse in the Yukon. One official said the air bases will be completed in time to go into operation during the coming summer.

More will be in uniform now. Most of these, made only occasional appearances as their military or air force duties permitted. Some may have joined Lt. Col. C. S. Booth (Liberal), Winnipeg, north, on overseas service and may be absent for the whole of the session.

As usual the reassembling of Parliament brings speculation about the duration of the session. With a month of the present session already elapsed during which key war ministers made statements on the services under their control, some members look for the completion of seasonal work by the end of May.

Developments abroad or in Canada may be in store which will influence the deliberations and the length of time members may want to stay in session.

ART DIFFERS AS MUCH AS EMOTIONS

"Art is an emotional expression and as the nature of the two peoples are different, so too is their art, and so will it be to the end," said John Kyle, in giving his interpretation of French and English art at the monthly meeting of the Arts and Crafts Society last night.

Mr. Kyle indicated that the contribution of France to art during the 12th, 13th and 14th centuries was in the nature of architecture, sculpture, stained glass and illuminated manuscripts but very little picture painting. English art during the same period was expressed in a like manner.

At first the French art was beautiful but motionless. Gradually, in the time of Jean Antoine Watteau, French art came to life but following the revolution, it changed to a style of classical austerity. Through the ages, different styles were attributed to the various French periods. Another change was sure to come after the present war, the speaker said.

Early English painters dealt mainly with landscapes and portraits, the latter of men who were building the British Empire and the industrial life of the nation. Modernists in England had not been so extreme as those in France. They had their impressionists and their neopressionists, realists and surrealists, but they were under good discipline and expressed themselves with more restraint than their continental neighbors.

This year the pre-lenten rally of the Cathedral A.Y.P.A. will be held at the Cathedral on February 23.

The Dominion conference will be held at Guelph, Ont., from May 27 to 31.

All bakers are invited to the meeting of Bakers' Local, No. 468, Saturday, at 3, at the Trades and Labor Hall. J. Humphrey of Vancouver will speak.

Hospital Must Expand

VANCOUVER (CP)—Officials

of the Vancouver General Hospital warned members of the board of governors at the annual meeting that overcrowding conditions at the institution have reached a point where they "must

Norman G. Cull, chairman of the board, said that during the Bank of Canada Profits Trebled

OTTAWA (CP)—Active note

circulation on December 31, 1940,

was $94,600,000 greater than at the same date in 1939, according to the annual report of Graham

F. Towers, governor of the Bank of Canada, made public today.

Actual volume of Bank of Canada notes outstanding at the end of 1940 was $359,949,121, an increase of $127,169,794 over the previous year.

But some $27,700,000 was held

by chartered banks and there was a drop of $4,800,000 in public

holdings of chartered bank notes,

leaving the net active note circulation increase at $94,600,000,

the report stated.

Net profits on 1940 operations

after providing for contingencies

and reserves were $4,044,460

against $1,863,725 in 1939.

Capital stock of the bank,

$5,000,000, is entirely held by the Dominion government. Thus the entire net profit, apart from

$1,273,153 which, under terms of the Bank of Canada Act, is paid

into the Rest Fund, goes to the public treasury.

More than half the increase in note circulation took place in

May, June and July and was attributed in part to a desire of some people to have cash reserves on hand "because of nervousness inspired by war news,"

the report stated.

The report estimated the amount of income paid out to Canadians in 1940 was about

$550,000,000—or some 14 per cent

—greater than in 1939.

On May 1, 1940, under an order-

in-council passed under authority

of the war measures act, the Bank of Canada sold to the Foreign Exchange Control Board

its holdings of foreign exchange

to the value of $27,734,444 in Canadian money, and gold reserves of 5,888,546 ounces valued

at $227,772,887.

Since then the only foreign exchange held by the bank has consisted mainly of sterling held on account of the board or the Dominion government in connection with the government's program

for repatriation of Canadian securities from the United Kingdom.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE

At the end of the year the Canadian dollar value of foreign exchange held by the bank was $38,429,278.

Holdings of Dominion and provincial securities on December 31

last were valued at $575,763,162,

an increase of $343,990,604 for the year, mainly accounted for by the purchase from the Foreign Exchange Control Board of $250,

000,000 of Dominion one per cent

notes dated May 1, 1940, maturing May 1, 1941.

Commenting on the security

market the report said two

"typical long term Dominion

issues" averaged 97 1/2 per cent on December 31, 1939, and at the end of 1940 had risen to 99 1/2, representing a reduction in yield of nearly

one quarter of one per cent.

M.P.'S MAY DEBATE

NEW U.S. BASES

LONDON (CP)—The government was requested in the House of Commons today to allow time

for a secret debate on the circumstances of leasing naval bases

to the United States and their subsequent administration by the Washington government.

Clement R. Attlee, Lord Privy

Seal, replied the government was very pressed for time, but the suggestion would be brought to BRITISH FREIGHTER TURNS OVER WHEN CARGO SHIFTS—With a cargo of pig iron for Great Britain, the British freighter Ramon de Larrinaga lies half-submerged in Delaware Bay while experts studied salvage problems. The 5,971-ton vessel turned over on its side three miles off the Delaware breakwater after a two-day struggle in heavy seas. It was beached on Marshall shoal after being towed to the breakwater from a point 75 miles off Atlantic City. A cargo shift had caused it to list. Crewmen praised 15-year-old Charles Smith, who fed coal to the fires with his bare hands until the engine-room was in water up to the firebox.

Balloon Barrage Unit on Coast

WASHINGTON (AP)—Creation of a balloon barrage unit at Fort Lewis, Wash., to experiment with this type of protection against air raids was announced today by Under-Secretary Robert P. Patterson of the U.S. War Department.

Announcing this step at a press conference, he said the success of British balloon barrages in forcing German planes to fly at great altitudes prompted it.

"There is no doubt the balloons have been very effective," Patterson said.

He mentioned that Germany and Italy also had used the barrages as a protection against air raids, attaching the balloons to wrecked planes which flew low over the protected area.

Another Patterson disclosure was that contracts totaling approximately $13,706,000 had been signed to start fortifying and otherwise equipping six of the eight Atlantic bases leased from the British.

Master Here Was Held in Japan

Suspected of having deliberately wrecked his command in an effort to learn military secrets, Capt. Jean P. Ioannidis, master of the Greek steamship Phaex, was held in detention for two days by the Japanese authorities.

Capt. Ioannidis told the story following arrival on this coast from Japan aboard the N.Y.K. liner Helan Maru.

The Phaex, laden with a cargo from Los Angeles, was nearing Yokohama when she ran into a typhoon early last December. Rather than attempt the narrow harbor entrance, Capt. Ioannidis turned to fight it out on the open sea and was thrown on to a reef, one mile from shore. The great vessel, 470 feet long, lay broadside to the shore, forming a perfect lee for lifeboats.

Twelve hours after she grounded, Capt. Ioannidis ordered the ship to be abandoned. All hands, with the exception of one seaman, who had crept away into some hidden hole to sleep, were assembled. Then all hands searched the ship for the missing man, but to no avail. Rather than lose 39 lives in hopes of saving one, the captain ordered the men into the lifeboats. He left one boat moored on the water, on the lee side, expecting the missing man, if still on board, would find it and come ashore.

The great hull bent and creaked. The missing man awoke when the ship broke in two. Huge pieces of metal flew hundreds of feet when the break came. He staggered on deck, and saw all decks emptied. He reeled to the lee side and saw the shore a mile away. He looked down and saw the lifeboat, equipped with water, cognac, food and lifebelts and oars. So he embarked and pulled himself to safety.

Meantime Capt. Ioannidis was in the hands of the suspicious military authorities. He remained for two days, but it was a week before the authorities were fully satisfied. He voices deep appreciation for aid rendered him by an American lawyer and by the agent of States Steamship Lines.

The Phaex is believed to be a total loss.

HUNGERFORD PAYS MOFFAT TRIBUTE

WINNIPEG — The following message was received here from S. J. Hungerford, chairman and president, Canadian National Railways, at the present in Vancouver.

"It is with profound regret that the members of the board of directors of the Canadian National Railways have heard of the death of their colleague, Robert J. Moffat. The wise counsel and wide experience of western Canada affairs which he brought to our deliberations was of very great value to the system and the quiet charm of his personality will be sadly missed, not only by his brother directors, but by the staff of the railway."

Pan-American Railway Congress Suggested

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP)—The South American Railway Congress voted unanimously yesterday to invite United States and Canadian railway associations to join the group and make it a Pan-American organization.

Presenting the resolution, Guillermo Leguizamón, Argentine railway president, declared that Latin America was "united in support of the United States for the cause of democracy." He attacked European dictatorships, and referred to President Roosevelt as "Guardian of manhood peoples."

Vessel Hard Aground

HYAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—The lumber schooner W. R. Chamberlain Jr. remained aground on a sandbar off the Roseville yacht harbor despite the combined power of four straining tugs used in an attempt to refloat the vessel.

The freighter went aground Monday night as it was leaving the harbor en route to Portland after delivering 1,500,000 feet of lumber at the Embarcadero.

Wheat Exports Down

OTTAWA (CP)—Canada's domestic wheat exports totaled 4,880,080 bushels, valued at $3,973,441, during January, compared with 10,357,605, valued at $9,249,937, in January, 1940, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics reported today. Average export price per bushel was 81.4 cents, compared with 89.3.

Wheat flour exports in January totaled 354,818 barrels, valued at $1,234,404. This compared with 735,316 barrels, valued at $2,612,385 in January, 1940. Average export price per bushel was $3.50, compared with $3.60.

Bell Income Up

Net income of $6,690,542, equal to $8.20 a share, was reported today for 1940 by the Bell Telephone Company of Canada, compared with $6,509,448, or $8.09 per share in 1939.

After payment of dividends, $165,862 was added to earned surplus, against $69,110 in the previous year.

MAILS

Close, 11:15 p.m. February 8, 9, 11, 15, 17, 18, 19, 22, 23, 26, March 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 11 via San Francisco.

FISHERMEN ON PATROL—Doughty little ship of the "Fishermen's patrol" fleet of the Royal Canadian Navy plows through the heaving Pacific. These small vessels keep constant watch over the bays and inlets of the British Columbia coast.

New York Stocks

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market was beset with further selling troubles today and leading issues were forced down fractions to two points.

At the bottom today the Associated Press average of 60 issues was back where it was last August.

Relapsing inclinations were attributed by brokers mainly to continued apprehension over Balkan developments and fears an upset in the Far East might be near at hand.

J. I. Case was off 5 at one time on a small turnover. Prominent on the slip-up were U.S. Steel, Bethlehem, Chrysler, Douglas Aircraft, United Aircraft, Anaconda, American Smelting, Westinghouse, Dupont, Union Carbide, Johns-Manville and U.S. Gypsum.

Canadian issues were easy. Distillers Searom and Lake Shore Mines each lost less than a point. Dome Mines rested unchanged while Canada 4s, in the bond market, dipped 4 1/2.

WIDE DECLINE

TORONTO (CP)—The stock market registered its widest decline of the winter today and set new lows in all index groups for the year but recovered some of the lost ground in the final hour.

Hiram Walkers common dropped more than 2 to 40. Other issues down a point were National Steel Car and Canada Wire and Cable. Fractional losses were posted by Bell Telephone, all the big oils, Ford "A," Laura Secord and Loblaw "A."

Steels were weak generally and losses predominated in the utility and miscellaneous groups.

Kerr-Addison, Preston, Lamark, East Malartic, Anor, San Antonio, Upper Canada and Central Patricia Golds slumped 10 to 20.

STEEL SAGS 2

MONTREAL (CP)—Weakness in leaders took stock market prices to lower stages today.

Steel of Canada had a two-point sag and others off fractionally were Algoma, Asbestos, Canada Cement, Dominion Bridge and Building Products.

National Steel Car dipped 1 1/2 and was followed part of the way by C.P.R. and Canadian Car.

Nickel was deprived of a point and Bulolo 1/4 while Hudson Bay Mining went ahead by 1/4.

Wheat

WINNIPEG (CP)—Easiness at Chicago, increased hedging sales and disappointing support combined to clip almost a cent from wheat futures prices on Winnipeg Grain Exchange today. The weakness developed soon after the opening bell and quotations gradually lost ground to close 1/4 to 1/2 cent lower, May wheat at 77 1/2 and July 79 cents a bushel.

There were no reports of export business in Canadian wheat for flour and mills made only scattered purchases in the pit.

Chicago wheat values lost about a cent during a nervous session, while Argentine prices were unchanged on the almost stagnant Buenos Aires market.

Following the trend of wheat quotations, flax prices slipped two cents under the previous close, while rye lost fractions. Fairly

Has Lost DriveNEW YORK (AP)—Jim Brad-

what more than sit up and take a little nourishment. But he'd like to explain to a medical man
just what it is he sees which convinces him Joe Louis "ain't what he used to be."This is a most surprising situation, inasmuch as Braddock has been the Brown Bomber's sincerest booster since the night in Chicago Louis took the Cird-
ella man's heavyweight championship away."I don't know exactly how to explain what I mean," Jim said yesterday. "But Joe seems to have lost something. It's not that he's getting soft, or anything like that, but the drive, the old will he had when he fought me in 1937, is gone.""I feel that if I was the Braddock of four years ago and was matched with the Louis of today,
there's a possibility—now, mind
you, I'm not saying positively—
but it's possible I could outglop him and win a decision. There's a chance any guy might might do it is Billy Conn, in

Spaniel Judged Best
For Successive YearNEW YORK (AP)—My Own
Brucie last night went best-in-show in the Westminster Kennel Club show for the second year in succession as he was judged most perfect of the six finalists before a crowd of 6,000
in Madison Square Garden.As an American-bred dog, the five-year-old, coal-black cocker spaniel owned by Herbert E. Mellenhuth of Poughkeepsie, N.Y., automatically also became best American-bred in the show.Brucie, final survivor of 2,548 candidates for dogdom's greatest honor, was the first successful
defending champion since fox terrier, Ch. Pendley Calling of Blarney, won in 1930 and 1931.The English setter, Ch. Maro
of Maridor from Prune's Own Kennels, Tuxedo Park, N.Y., took second place.Baseball Offence
Aided Too MuchNEW ORLEANS (AP)—Carl Hubbell believes baseball's recent changes have "favored the offence" so much that a pitcher cannot get by without a freak delivery—and usually a free arm.Hubbell is an authority on both freak pitches and sore arms. His unconventional "screwball" slither-
ed past baseball's best batters
for years until his arm went bad
two seasons ago. Since then his special deliveries have been returned to the sender, or past him,
with increasing regularity."Bringing in a more lively ball
and everything else done in the last 15 years or more has favored
the offence," said the New York Giants' pitcher, who is here visiting his teammate, Mel Ott."A fellow with tremendous speed might be able to overpower
the hitter, but an ordinary pitcher
has to develop some freak delivery such as a screwball or a slider to get by."You can't do it on just a change of pace and ordinary curves or control or 'brains.' If you pitch that lively ball without some freak delivery you will get your brains knocked out."That's why there are so many sore arms. You can't keep throwing that kind of a pitch indefinitely without getting hurt."Hubbell plans to leave for Miami to join the Giants in spring training.Good Grid Action
In St. Louis WinClicking on a passing offensive which they put into action soon
after the start of the game, St.
Louis College gridders walloped
Saanich, 22 to 1, in inter-scholastic league play yesterday.It was both teams second game of the season. Collegians tied with Vichigh in the league opener.
Saanich beat Oak Bay in the second game of the season.Yesterday's game provided best action of the season with St.
Louis College's Reg. Clarkson, half-back, doing most of the passing; Fred French, quarterback,
carrying out the receiving work,
and O'Connell turning in a perfect kicking performance.Collegians gathered their 22
points with two touchdowns,
extra point of each collected by O'Connell with drop kicks, a place kick by O'Connell and a rouge.Saanich scored their lone point
in the first quarter by rousing French.Collegians had scored one touchdown prior to this. Touchdown came from a 15-yard pass
from Clarkson to French who received over the goal line.Second touchdown arrived soon after the start of the second period with Clarkson carrying the ball eight yards to cross the line
from an off-middle play.Half way through the quarter O'Connell added three more points with a perfectly executed place kick from the 25-yard line.On the last play of the half, O'Connell passed to French who received over the goal line for another touchdown. Ball travelled 25 yards.There was no scoring in the third quarter. In the fourth Southwell, St. Louis, picked up another point with a rouge.Saanich had a fair running attack but St. Louis tackling kept them down.There are 7,407 miles of railways within the boundaries of Ru-

'Marching to Victory'

HON. J. G. GARDINER, Minister of National War Services, in Montreal said the war was"just a little past the centre of the first period, a period of preparation," and that Britain was fighting for religion and the democratic institutions which the Union Jack represents.A British victory, he said, will establish a system of "free intercourse among nations" that will "give the lie" to a form of thought favored by Hitler that
"some nation is better than any other" and therefore justified in grabbing any part of the world it wants.Describing the English Channel
as "a moat to the citadel of freedom," and the Royal Navy as
"the bulwark of democracy," Mr.
Gardiner said the Empire was moving through the period of preparation towards its peak of fighting strength."When that point is reached,"
he said, "we will be marching to victory."

Science Helps Armies

SIR GEORGE SANSOM, professor of Japanese studies at Columbia University, said in New York that sand research by British scientists was an important reason why Empire troops and mechanized transports can
"move swiftly across great arid spaces, strike hard blows and cause that discomfiture of Mussolini which was eloquently described by Churchill in his recent broadcast."Sir George told of Major Ralph Alger Bagnold, formerly of the Royal Corps of Signals and now retired, who was "passionately
interested in sand-sand dunes,
sand drifts, formations—in fact,
everything about it."He traveled all over the world to examine sand. There was one kind of sand which he studied carefully for many years, that of the North African deserts. I feel sure that when the history of the Libyan campaign comes to be written, Gen. Wavell will ascribe
some of the credit for his success
to this student of an obscure problem."Major Bagnold is a brother of Enid Bagnold, well-known author
and wife of Sir Roderick Jones, former chairman of Reuters news agency.

South America Not Nazi

CARL CROW, globe-trotting
author and newspaperman, said
in SEATTLE, on his arrival from South America, "I found stories of Nazi activity there greatly exaggerated. Nazi agents are all over the place, but they're not getting anywhere. People know who they are and what they're up to. They're ready to shoot if they try to start anything."Germans down there—the permanent residents—have no sympathy with Hitler. Most of them are descendants of emigrants who left Bavaria nearly a century ago.
They have married with the native South Americans and are citizens of the countries where they live."They are no more pro-Nazi than Wendell Willkie, whose ancestors left Germany about the same time."He added that to the vast majority of South Americans, President Roosevelt was the greatest man in the world, with U.S. state secretary Hull a close second.Mr. Crow, who has lived in Shanghai for years, can't go back there now, because the Japanese have a price on his head—because he made some uncomplimentary observations about Japan in a recent book, "I Speak For the Chinese."

'Not a Suicide'

THE WIDOW OF LEON
TROTSKY said in Mexico City
the fatal shooting in Washington
of Walter Krivitsky, former official of the Russian secret police, "undoubtedly was another murder by the Ogpu."Through a secretary, Mrs. Trot-sky said at her fortress-like home
in nearby Coyoacan:
"Krivitsky's death was not a suicide. That suicide theory is just one of the Ogpu's many schemes to attempt to cover up its murders."Stalinists, for example, tried to make the first unsuccessful attack on Trotsky appear as a self-assault."Krivitsky and Trotsky, she said, did not know each other,
and Krivitsky was not a member of the Trotskyist organization.

Willkie Assailed

THOMAS E. DEWEY endorsed the lease-lend bill at a Washington Lincoln Day dinner while at a similar Republican rally in Philadelphia Senator GERALD
NYE of North Dakota, termed Wendell Willkie's support of the measure a "betrayal" and a step toward destruction of the two-party system.Willkie's stand also was assailed by Representative Hamilton Fish of New York who told a Baltimore gathering the 1940Republican presidential standard bearer was "beating the war drums more furiously than the interventionists and war makers
of the Democratic party."Further typifying the division of Republican opinion on the British aid legislation, Senator
Robert Taft of Ohio said at a Lincoln Day dinner in Harrisonburg, Va., Willkie "does not and cannot speak for the Republican party" on foreign affairs.

Situation in Pacific

G. G. McGEER, M.P., told the Young Republicans' Lincoln Daybanquet in Seattle the civil war president had laid the groundwork for a two-ocean navy in his message to the 1864 congress.The United States had one of the world's largest navies then,
he said, "but Lincoln urged its expansion. The situation in the Pacific today vindicates his judgment."Mr. McGeer quoted from statements of Lincoln to support his claims the great emancipator had misgivings about future relations with Japan.It was during Lincoln's administration, McGeer continued, thatthe first co-operative action between the British and American navies was taken—to sweep the slave trade from the seas.

Navy Proves Worth

LT.-CMDR. THOMAS WOOD-
ROFFE said in London Britishsea power had rendered the position of Italy's African colonies
"hopeless," and it was "only a question of time before they will drop off like withered leaves.""There is no substitute for sea power," he said. "Italy has learned that already."Before the war, Woodroffe said, the Germans had tried to convince the world sea power
was out of date. "But up until now the effect of air power has been purely local."British sea power had cut off
all the Italian African colonies
from their main base of supplies and reinforcements. On the other hand, supplies and reinforcements were pouring in for the British forces.LONDON (CP)—As a result of queries from Canadians as to how they can best help Britain's 1,500,000 civil defence workers,
Herbert Morrison, Home Secretary, has indicated money is preferred to knitted comforts.Workers who risk their lives
during air raids need warm underclothing, sweaters, jumpers, pullover, gloves and mittens. But gifts of money could be used in Britain to buy articles, whereas knitted comforts take up needed shipping space.

Bata Investigation

WASHINGTON (AP)—Representative Edith Rogers, Republican, Massachusetts, has asked
the United States House of Representatives committee investigating un-American activities, to consider investigating the Bata Shoe Company at Belcamp, Md.
She said employees and officials of the plant "were allowed to come (into the United States)
falsely, obviously with the approval of Mr. Hitler; that they operated the shoe shop, or the Belcamp Institute, as it is called,
under a feudal system in an un-American way."One out of every five brides in England is aged 30 or more.
